were present on the evening of the seveneenth day May, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred & before her death, in perfect possession of her faculties, she called on us to take notice and remember, that she gave, and now wished to be understood, that her will and desire was, that Dr Augustus Mitchell, her friend and physician, should have all her personal and real estate of every sort and description, appointing him to sell the same as executor, in consideration of his assiduousness to him and kind attentions during her last illness, and she desired and desired were, that the same should be carried into effect, immediately after which she died.
