

Will of Isaac

State of Georgia By His Honor, Camden County } E. A. McWhorter, Ordinary of said County.
Yo Co. H. Dukes, D. P. Maltby, and, H. A. Maltby, Esquires, Gentlemen: Whereas, There is a certain matter of the application of G. A. Maffett legated by virtue of his wife under the will of Isaac Lang, Senior, late of said County, deceased, and applied, and for letters of administration on the estate of the said Isaac, Lang, Sr., before the will of the said Lang, now depending in the Court of Ordinary for said County; and whereas Robert B. Crum is a material witness in said matter, and cannot attend our said Court in person, without manifest inconvenience: Now, knowing, that you, possessing special trust and confidence in your prudence and fidelity, have appointed you; and you, or any two or more of you, have thoroughly authorized and required to cause the said Robert B. Crum, personally to come before you, and, after being duly sworn, to examine the said Robert B.
Crum concerning the said matter, agreeably to the interrogatories first annexed; and the answers to the same being plainly and distinctly written, you are to send the same closed up under your hands and seals, to our said Court, to be filed on the Third day of March next, together with this writ.

Witness the Hon. E. A. McWhorter, Ordinary of said County, and of said Court this Sixth day of January, 1873.

E. A. McWhorter

Ordinary Camden County

The Commissioners Oath.

You shall, according to the best of your skill and understanding, truly, faithfully, and without partiality, take the examinations and depositions of the witnesses produced and examined by virtue of the above

Testament?

3rd. If you know anything about this matter, state the same fully.

State of Georgia, Clinch County In the matter of the probate of the will of Isaac Lang, late of the County of Camden in said State, deceased, in the Court of Ordinary, of said County of Camden, Georgia.
By virtue of a Commission, to me directed, from the Honorable Court of Ordinary, of Camden County, Georgia, we have caused Robert Brown, the witness in said Commission named, to come before us, who, being duly sworn true answers to make to certain interrogatories to said Commission attached, deposeth and answereth as follows. To wit: To the first direct interrogatory, he answers as follows: I did know and was acquainted with him.

2nd The signature is my genuine signature and in my own hand written, and I saw the same signed by David Lang James B. Crum and Alex S. Atkinson. And saw Isaac Lang publish the instrument of writing as his last will and testament and will.

3rd I know no further particulars.
