

82
Isby Rayland Wells

Camden County, Ga. I being in a bad State of Health Thought it proper to make a Will random in Case I should die of my present Illness viz. that all the property, debts and Effects should be Equally divided between the brother Thomas Rayland and my sister Melissa Ray this having all my lawful debts out of the money arising out of my Estate or debts that are due me which as follows I am deeply indebted to me for One Year amounting at four hundred dollars and for other services and things after giving him one Credit Four dollars W. Lides of the County of Camden is indebted to me for taking up some papers that was run away agreeable to the advertisement in the Savannah Gazette Fifty Dollars to and John Giles for work done for him and yet due me Six dollars John Lides of the said County is indebted to the two dollars and on an unsettled Account with Edmonson & Co. 8. of Nov 1803 Wm. Smith. E. P. Brown for Isby Rayland

Recorded Jan 7. 1804 G.