

Inventory of the Goods and belongings to the late John Hay as taken in presence of us the Subscribers, 3 Oct, 1801 one trunk containing the following articles, two coats, one coat, one Great Coat, two pair small Cloths, three Jackets, five shirts, four neck Handkerchiefs, eight pair Stockings four pocket Handkerchiefs, Masonic badge, one pair annuity, one bed Blanket, one pair pistols with Shotguns, one pair saddle bags one pair plaided apron, two Lancets, one Comb and case, one hat, one pocket book containing loose papers and a letter, one Umbrella, one Vest and pair small cloth, new, Twenty three Johnnies, seven quarters Ditto forty five half Dillo, Two six dollar pieces, two dollar pieces, two one dollar pieces, two six dollar pieces, Eighty eight cents, twenty two half dills, two eighths, four half eighths, twenty two dollars and fifty six and a fourth Cents, one Silver Watch.

We the subscribers do hereby certify that the above is a just and true account of the property which the deceased John Hay was possessed of at the time of her death. Now in the possession of Col. Peter W. Carr, where he died on the night of the first Instant

Peter W. Carr
Charles Gordon

Witness to before me this 3. October 1801

John King, J. R.