We, Jeremiah Wilson, Redding Williams, Mantha M Williams and Allen R Williams were present on the 17th day of February in the year of Our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Seventy, at the residence of John M Williams a married man at and before his death in perfect possession of his mental faculties, he called on us to come in and hear how he wanted to dispose of his property.
He now wished us to understand that his Will and design was that his wife Catherine should have all of his property both real and personal for her own use during her life time, and after her death 1st We give One thousand Dollars to his daughter Mantha M Williams, and One thousand Dollars to his daughter Mary E Alford and the balance to be divided between all his children equally.

This conversation and disposition of property was in the last sickness of John Williams.
