Mrs. Nancy Carnegie Johnston
 All of said heirs at law are of full age and majority and all are of the same, with the exception of petitioners are non-residents of the state of Georgia.
 Petitioners pray leave to prove said Will in solemn form and to that end that the said William Coleman Carnegie, Frank Morrison Carnegie, Mrs Margaret Carnegie, Rickatson Thom
 Morrison Carnegie, Mrs Florence Carnegie
 Perkins, and Mrs. Nancy Carnegie Johnston, non-residents heirs at law of the said deceased be cited to appear at the next Court of Ordinary for said Camden county, Georgia, to be held on the first Monday in September 1916 and show cause, if any they have, why said Will and its codicils as afore said should not be proven in solemn form and admitted to record as the true Last Will and Testament, with the codicils thereof, of the said Mrs. Lucie C. Carnegie deceased, and why letters testamentary should not be issued to Andrew Carnegie second, and George Lauder Carnegie, petitioners, according to the statute in such cases made and provided.

Respectfully submitted

I Lucy C. Carnegie of Pittsburgh and Allegheny do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all Wills, Codicils and any character heretofore made by me.

Exhibit A.

Item One.

I designate and appoint my first (eldest) children surviving at my death, Executors of this my will, and I give, devise and bequeath unto my said Executors in the capacity of Trustees upon the use and trusts and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, the following property to wit: My real estate in the State of Georgia located on Cumberland Island; and thus I direct my said Executors in their capacity as Trustees to hold during the lives of my children to wit: William Luther Carnegie, Frank Morrison Carnegie, Andrew Carnegie the 2nd, Thomas Morrison Carnegie, George Lander Carnegie, Margaret Carnegie Rickatson, Lillian Carnegie Perkins, Nancy Carnegie Johnston, and the survivor of them, maintaining the same out of the general income of the trust estate hereinafter created, and permitting such of my children as desire to do so to occupy the same free of rent. The children occupying said Island property shall pay all of the expenses of the house holds and stables, it being my intention that my said Executors, in their capacity as Trustees, shall out of the income of that portion of my estate specifically described hereinafter, pay only the expenses of maintaining the said Island property and improvements thereon with taxes and insurance, subject to the following directions, limitations and powers of sale to wit:

(1) If any one of my said children desire to sell his or her undivided interest in said Island property unto any one or more of my said children, upon such desire expressed in writing directed to said Trustees, and having likewise the written consent of a majority of my said children living at the time thereof, then said Trustees shall convey said undivided interest to the children living at the time thereof, then said Trustees shall convey said undivided interest to the purchaser thereof, provided the same is sold subject to the limitation on said estate so conveyed, and likewise a limitation on the right of such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, expressed in such conveyance, to wit: that the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, shall not have or exercise the right to have said property divided, nor shall the same be subject to division by any means whatsoever, until the death of the last survivor of my said children, having a right to use and enjoy the same or any portion thereof during his or her life time. The net proceeds realized from such sale shall be paid over by said Trustees unto him or her of such children requesting his or her interest to be sold.

(b) If any one or more of my said children desire to sell his or her undivided interest in said Island property unto any person other than my said children, upon such desire expressed in writing directed to said Trustees, and having likewise the written consent of all of my said children living at the time thereof, then said Trustees shall convey said undivided interest to the purchaser thereof, provided the same is sold subject to the limitation on said estate so conveyed, and likewise the limitation on the right of such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, expressed in such conveyance, to wit: that the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, shall not have or exercise the right to have said property divided, nor shall the same be subject to division by any means whatsoever, or have the use and occupation thereof until the death of the last survivor of my said children having a right to use and enjoy the same or any portion thereof during his or her life time. The net proceeds realized from such sale shall be paid over by said Trustees unto him or her of such children requesting his or her interest to be sold.

(c) If at any time all of my said children desire and consent to divide said Island property among themselves and in such proportions as they as a whole may elect, the same shall be divided by said Trustees in such manner as stated in said trust, and thereupon the said Trustees shall make and execute to each of my said children a deed of conveyance in accordance therewith, and the said trust shall then terminate as to said Island property.

(d) If at any time a majority of my said children then living (other

Exhibit A.

those who may have disposed of their interest as provided in sub-sections (a) and (b) of this item, shall in writing request my said Trustees to sell the said Island property or any portion thereof. The Trustees shall comply with such request as soon as can be done to advantage, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid as follows: to my said children then living, and to the children of such other of my said children as are then dead who have not heretofore sold their interest in said property, the children of such deceased children, to the parents share, and also to the purchase of the interest of any one or more of my said children who may have disposed of his or her share as described in sub-sections (a) and (b) of this item, in such proportion as said interest may be entitled to.

(c) The power of sale herein given to my said Trustees may be exercised by them either at public or private sale, and upon such terms of sale as their best judgment may dictate without the necessity of an order from any court or tribunal what soever.

(d) In the event the trust herein created for said Island property, or any portion thereof, has not terminated before the death of the last survivor of my said children, the said trust shall then terminate and the whole or any portion thereof shall not be held absolutely in such persons and for such estates and proportions as would have the same under the interstate laws of the state of Pennsylvania, and all my named children had survived me and died intestate, except that the husband of any of my said daughters shall be entitled from that right to any portion thereof as may be provided by law.

Item Two

I direct my office building and real estate upon which the same is located on Fifth Avenue, City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, between Fifth and County Alleys, known as the "Common Building" to be held and kept as a trust by my said Executors in their capacity as Trustees upon the following uses and trusts. Some of much of my yearly income received may be necessary for the payment and expense of the trust to said Island property continues, and to pay the surplus of said income, if any, yearly during the life of the trust as to said Island property to my said children then living, and to the children of such of my named children as are then dead, the children of every deceased child taking their parents share.

In the event the trust created for said Island property terminates by reason of the sale of said entire Island property, or by a division in kind among my said named children, then said "Common Building" and the land upon which it is located
