

In the Name of God Amen, I, Francis S. Ripley of the Town of St. Marys, in the State of Georgia, being conscious of the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last will and testament, And first I Commit my body to the ground And my Soul to the God who give it.
 And as to such worldly estate as I may be possessed of I dispose of the same in the following manner.

I order and desire that all my lawful debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of the first moneys that shall come into the hands of my Executors from any of my Estate, real, or personal.

I do give devise and bequeath unto my dear beloved Cousins, Mary, Matilda Rudolph, and Susan, Elizabeth Hankins, of the Town of St. Marys, in the State of Georgia, all my Estate both real and personal, and all my property of whatever name or description to be equally divided between them, I have and have not share alike to each, and of its share make and ordain my friends, Thomas, James, Markins and Francis Rudolph, Executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I, Francis S. Ripley the testator have to this my will written on one sheet of paper, set my hand and seal this eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty two signed Seals and Francis S. Ripley And in presence of us who

Jane Subscribed in the presence of each other

Note of Georgia

Camden County, I personally appeared John F. Rudolph who on oath says that he saw the Son of Francis Rudolph and the said Francis Rudolph witness to the within will of Francis S. Ripley, and that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of said Francis Rudolph, and that the signature of the said Francis Rudolph which is attached to the said will is the hand writing of said Francis Rudolph who since the time of signing the said will has departed this life.
 He also swears that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of Mary L. Hill another subscriber witness of the said will of Francis S. Ripley, and that the signature of Mary L. Hill which is attached to the said will is in her hand writing. John F. Rudolph sworn to before me this 11th day of May 1891
