

STATE OF GEORGIA.

COUNTY OF DOUGLAS.

I, A.L. Campbell, of said county, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all and any others I may have heretofore made.

Item I. It is my Will and desire that all of my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

Item II. It is my will and desire that my body be buried in a Christian-like manner, and that a suitable tomb stone be erected at my expense all of which I hereby leave to the discretion and wishes of my wife.

Item III. I will, bequeath, and devise and give all of my property, both real and personal, all moneys chosen in action, and all and every kind of property of whatsoever character and kind, that I may have, possess or own at my death, to my wife, Mrs. Arvilla L. Campbell, to be hers absolutely in fee simple forever.

Item IV. It is my will and desire, and I do hereby will and direct that my said wife be and she is hereby named and appointed and made my sole executrix of this my last will and testament. I do further will and desire and relieve her from making any inventory of my property, of giving bond, and she is required by this will only to prebate ^{the} same, and she is further relieved from making any returns or accountings of her acts and doings as such executrix to any court whatsoever. This January the 12th. 1922.

A.L. Campbell.

Declared, published, signed and sealed by A.L. Campbell as his last will and testament, in the presence of the undersigned as witnesses, he first signing in our presence, and we then, special instance and request signing in his presence and in the presence of each other. This the 12th. day of January, 1922.
