

Letters of General Washington

Office of Recorder of Deeds State of Georgia
County of Chatham
By the Court of Ordinary Dated this 11th day of June 1881

Whereas William A. Bullard, President of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern Pacific Railroad, is guilty of various wrongs, of a character guaranteeing the Government of the property of the said William A. Bullard to be manifestly wrong, to be and for the better security of the of the said William A. Bullard, and from the integrity and confidence reposed in him, I do hereby condemn the Government of the property of the said William A. Bullard, to you the said Bullard, you receiving them by the acceptance of these letters.

Never changing you I remain with and take charge of her estate both real and personal, and all other things in which by law you ought to be mine Hers.

All of which I have most perfect secrets you shall render to the Court of Ordinary for their Court, according to law, see every year during your continuance in office

Discern neither any harm or ordinary evil the least of which could
