

GEORGIA, DOUGLAS COUNTY.

I George W. Lane, of said County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others that I have heretofore made.

Item 1. It is my will and desire that my body be buried in a Christianlike manner, the place and details of which I leave to Robert Josiah Wesley my great nephew.

Item 2. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

Item 3. I will, bequeath and devise all of my property real and personal of whatever kind and where ever situated, to my said grand nephew Robert Josiah Wesley, to be his absolutely and his heirs forever.

Item 4. I hereby make my grand nephew Robert Josiah Wesley, executor of this will, and I relieve him from making any inventory of my property or appraisement, or from giving any bond, and he is required only by this will to probate this will, and he is further relieved from making any return of his acts to any court whatever.

This 16th day of June, 1902.

G. W. Lane.

Declared, published signed and sealed by George W. Lane, as his last will and testament, in the presence of the undersigned as witnesses, he having first signed in our presence, and we then, at his special instance and request in the presence of each other, this 16th day of June, 1902.
