

Georgia, Douglas County) I J.L. Selman of said State and County being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.

Item 1st. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid.

Item 2nd. I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Hannie L. Selman, during her life time or widowhood all the property both real and personal of which I may die seized and possessed, and my said wife to have the right to use the personal property in any way she may see proper to sell the same if she seems best and to manage the personship and the rents and profits of the realty to support maintain and educate the children. Just as though I were alive; and in personal supervision of my business affairs, except that no realty is to be sold.

Item 3rd. At the termination of the widowhood of my said wife all the property then remaining to be sold and the proceeds equally divided between my said wife and the children issue of our marriage share and share alike. And if any child should die before that time leaving a child or children to receive the share which would belong to such child;

Item 4th. And if my said wife should remain a widow till her death then at her death all property of every kind to be sold or divided divided if practicable, being all of our children then living equally, And if said proceeds to be equally divided among our children and if any child should die leaving a child or children to receive the share of such child.

J.L. Selman.

Item 5th. I hereby constitute my beloved wife Hannie L. Selman Executrix of this my last will and testament. This Oct. 1st. 1894.

J.L. Selman (L.S.)

Signed declared and published by J.L. Selman as his last will and testament in the presence of us the subscribers who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testator (at his instance and request) and of each other, he signing in our presence, and we signing in his presence.

H.G. Griggs.

J.E. Ward

J.T. Duncan.

GEORGIA, DOUGLAS COUNTY.

I, J.T. Duncan, do swear that I, as well as H.G. Griggs and J.E. Ward saw the within named J.L. Selman, sign and publish the within paper as his last will and testament; that I subscribed the same as a witness thereto, at the special instance and request of the said J.L. Selman, and in his presence, as did also H.G. Griggs and J.E. Ward; that the said J.L. Selman signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was, at the time of such signing, of sound and disposing mind and memory. Sworn to and subscribed before me.

This 6th day of October, 1894.

J.T. Duncan.

J.E. McLarty, Ordinary.

State of Georgia, Douglas County.

To-wit: I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will and testament of the within named J.L. Selman deceased, so far as I know or believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same in accordance with the laws of this State. So help me God.

Mrs. Hannie L. Selman.

Sworn to and subscribed before me This Oct. 6th, 1894.

J.E. McLarty, Ordinary.

Oath recorded on Minutes Book page, 32v

J.E. McLarty, Ordinary.