

Georgia
Douglas County
I, M. E. Leatherwood do swear that M. E. Leatherwood died intestate and that I will with due and singular administration of said deceased and pay to his just debt as far as the same will extend and the law requires me and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels rights and credits and a just return when thereunto required so help me God Subscribed before M. E. Leatherwood Oct 2 1881

John N. Edge
Clerk

State of Georgia
Douglas County
By the Court of said County Where M. E. Leatherwood late of said County deceased died intestate during while he lived and at the time of his death died goods chattels and credits within said County by reason whereof the said deceased and person of spending the administration of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said deceased and also a just disposition from the same to said County due of right belong and said Court trusting the goods chattels and credits of said deceased may be with due and singular administration and disposition of the said goods chattels and credits of said deceased which to him in his lifetime and at the time of his death did belong and to ask demand sue for and recover and receive the same and pay the debt in which the deceased stood bound so far forth as his assets will extend according to law and the balance to pay over to the legal heirs and distributees of said deceased. And the said M. E. Leatherwood having given bond and security and taken the oath and performed all the requisites required by law necessary to his just qualification as administrator he is by order of said Court and by virtue of the power therein constituted and appointed administrator of all and singular the goods chattels rights and credits of said deceased

Witness my hand and seal of office this October 3 1881