

Georgia } By John McJames ordinary Dawson County } of said County Know all whom it may concern that on the 23rd day of February 1876 the Last Will & Testament of William H. Lloyd deceased at the time of his death a resident of said County was legally proven in Common form a copy of which is annexed & set out at which time an order was taken to allow J. W.
Butler named executor in said Will to qualify and that letters Testamentary should issue to him upon qualifying as such executor now therefore the said J. W. Butler having taken the oath of office and being provided with all necessary qualifications of the Law said J. W. Butler is legally authorized to discharge all the duties of executor on the Will of William H. Lloyd to administer the property of said deceased which is devised according to the Will and the Terms of the same and said J. W. Butler is hereby required to render a true and perfect inventory and appraisement of all and singular the Goods and Chattels of said Deceased and make return thereof to the Court of Ordinary of said County and further to report annually to the same office the Situation of said Estate his doings and sayings until said executorship is fully discharged
