

Georgia
Newton County

In the name of God Amen

I Augustus G. Brooks of said county and state being of sound disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others.

Item first. It is my will that all my just debts be paid and a stock as well as all other kinds of property that I own at my death to be kept together and worked as a means of support for my family so long as my wife shall live a widow, and my children minors, but if my wife should marry then the property to be sold and an equal division to be made between my wife and children.

Item third. I hereby give to my wife who I intend as the executrix of this my will, power to sell or put in on private sale any portion of my property, without obtaining any other authority, and when sold that she may invest the money in other property to be under the same control and restrictions as the original property before sale.

Item fourth. I hereby constitute my wife Emily G. Brooks executrix of this my will, and guardian of my children so long as she remains a widow.

Signed and acknowledged as the last will and testament of Augustus G. Brooks by him before us who signed the same in our presence, we in his and in the presence of each other
