

John Smith to the charge of the Dorchester Co. Mass.

and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby giving all that I own to my wife and children

I have not been able to say my body shall be buried at Guilford County as near as may be in which he was buried, and that the style of the inscription of my epitaph, that other families be in the style as his at present that my soul shall ascend to God.
 I am &c.

Item 2^o I wish all my debts and financial affairs gone as early as practicable after my release.

After my arrival.

Paul He Vello now of Bolivar county Mississippi, Betty a woman about fifty one ^{years old} there a man fifty one years old, Rosa a woman about forty one years old, Ben twenty one years old, Lott a boy seventeen years old, Jim a boy fifteen years old, Amelia a girl thirteen years old Lena a girl seven years old, Anthony a boy four years old, Ernest a twelve years old, also two horses and furniture, one set ~~xxx~~ table marked B. & B. one silver coffee pot, one set silver castors, two pieces silver spoons, one silver tassel, one set large home made chairs, one mahogany dining table, one mahogany tea table, one mahogany sofa, one marble top center table, six chairs (good ones) one western cow milk, one good waa wagon, harness and appendances, one set silver forks, and half of my farming utensils, one set tea knives & forks, also three lots land in Spaulding county, Ga on the west of the Toccoa River, which I propose to convey to him as soon as I can get the title deeds showing the wt, being a portion of my plantation, all to go to him during his life, & moreover to all his children equally except his daughter by his first wife for whom I shall make a separate provision.

Item 4th I give and bequeath to my niece Mrs Caroline H Dawards, daughter of my brother Paul H. Vetter, by his first wife Augustus a man about twenty five years old, and Louisa a woman thirty years old and her child Helen Foster two years old, to her during life and at her death to go to her children equally.

Item 5th I give and bequeath unto Amelia Amanda

