

State of Georgia
 Wilton County
 I, John P. Thompson of the State and County aforesaid, being advanced in years and knowing that I must shortly depart this life being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

First -
 I desire that my body be buried in a plain and Christianlike manner, according to my circumstances in life -

Second -
 I desire that my just debts be paid as soon as possible after my death by my Executors hereafter named.

Third - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Susan Thompson all my stock of every kind not otherwise disposed of for her own use and benefit during her natural life or widowhood - also my household and kitchen furniture with the same exception. I also desire that she remain on the land and in the house I now occupy during her life time or widowhood and within as his last will and testament while sound and disposing mind and memory, that heponent signed the same as a witness to presence of testator at his special instance and request and in the presence of John P. Davis, William J.

 Davis who also signed the same as witnesses in presence of testator and of each other, and that said will was executed freely and voluntarily by testator on the first day of November 1870 -
