

...to the name of our Lord I took & gave it to you saying being with you all with one heart and one mind we made this my last will and testament duly reading it over to you and them first. It is my wish that my dear wife Jane and my youngest child Joseph Bishop shall have a suitable share of my estate and possessions out of my estate this my last will and testament of my own life and estate the said Joseph Bishop shall have in addition to the share that I have given him that my said wife and son Joseph Bishop shall have an equal share of my estate and my other children of my body and of my estate as part of the estate of my wife & son It is my wish that after my death my said wife and son Joseph Bishop be done of the sale of all my property except as before said be done that my wife and son Joseph Bishop be made equal in my property.

I constitute my son Alfred & Lewis executor to this my last will.
