

To the owner of No. 1000 - North 10th St.
St. Louis, Mo. - to make this declaration of ownership. As the owner of the same and form the same into and through a banner and form

[illegible]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
 J. B. Smith

in 1838 I bought a pair of age on Fire and also a pair of age on Fire the same of late for 10 years and to my daughter Elizabeth 10 years and to the same of late for 10 years and to the same
of late for 10 years and to the same

All remaining property of every description owned by the plantation, with household and kitchen furniture is to be and remain in the power & possession of my beloved wife Elizabeth Cornithus in case of death, or death during her natural life all the remaining property at that time of every description to be equally divided between the bondsmen and their heirs or their heirs or assigns Sheen and Sheen alike after paying all just debts William Longstreet James Longstreet Capt Cornithus William W. Cornithus sons of the body of my daughter Rutha Lane and my daughter Elizabeth W Cornithus

I also report my Aunt Sarah Doughter, Sept 4 Learner and Volant Doughter my late father Cecilia Cook, Rebecca all former wife of my mother & the only Whore of Free Doughter have lived in my house and had had 20 lbs of gold in the year of 1791 & 1792 on the second of the year of American Independence Sept 4th 1792 and that 1793 and 1794 second year of American Independence Sept 4th 1794 and 1795 and 1796 the late named Sept 4th 1796 and 1797 last full the instrument in the presence of it is now named subscribed for names to be in the name of the instrument

To Mr. George Smith
 New York
 New York Times

James E. Spoonall, appeared in Glen Fulton Court House, and read and filed his deposition and after being duly sworn deposed and testified that he, with Joseph Loomis, John Loomis, and Nathan the witness writing to be and contains in last will and testament and that he never found disposing them (and Memoirs) in the depository and yet that he executed the same freely and without compulsion and that he found the same as deposits in the presence of the testator and each of them Loomis and he subscribed to a few books (the third day) of September 1833

A. W. Evans
Dep. Clerk

Ans I have
Will find

