Newton Court of Ordinary
August term 1869.

A. C. Weidlebrooks, John T. Johnston & John Sullivan appearing in open Court and being duly sworn, depose that the foregoing paper purporting to be the municipal will of Peter Weidlebrooks, is so in fact, that the said Peter Weidlebrooks, being at his own house in Newton County, Georgia on the 6th day of April 1862 being near and death, in his last sickness from which he had suffered about two weeks while the undersigned were present waiting on him, after calling on them to bear witness of what he should say, then made the declarations which are substantially set forth in the foregoing municipal will - Soon after to act on the 15th day of April 1862 the said Peter Weidlebrooks died, deponents further say that the foregoing municipal will of Peter Weidlebrooks, was written down on the same day it was made and assigned by each of us as witnesses, being called upon by testator to do so - That testator at the time of making said will was of sound mind and disposing memory.
