

Last Will of Amédée Cognat—

Georgia, Newton County, of the Amman showing that it is appointed unto all men to die, and after death to appear before God, to be judged, to give an account of our deeds here. Perme and Reynolds being at the same time both at

I, James and Reynolds, being attended, we as a body, and capable of disposing of my temporal effects. To make this my last will and testament, I hereby doe with all order made by us - I now hereby dispose of and distribute my effects between my beloved wife and children, and grand children as follows-

Nov. 1th I commend my body to the Ausp. of and volunties of Christ, and my soul to God, who gave me being, Hoping to enjoy a Second Immortality with him for ever. I desire after my decease, a decent Christian Buriall, and the expenses, to first be paid out of my effects left. And next I will that all my just debts be paid out of my estate.

(Time 2 nd/₁₁) In my will and desire that my beloved wife Nancy Reynolds have and retain ~~and~~ take down right, out of the effects of my estate, the following personal and real estate-to wit: All the Household and Kitchen furniture of every description. All the stock of horses, Cattle, Hogs &c. The Carriage and Chuggy and Oak wagons, plantation tools, and all the Corn and provisions that may be on hand, I also give to my beloved wife in that estate, all the Land I own in this Newton County known as my Henderson tract, containing 21

 One hundred acres lying on Silver Spring and Bear Creek South of Kensington required with all the work that may be done in the time of my lease out from said place with all the stock or provisions or plantation tools that may be or said plantations tools taken. I gave to my second wife twenty five hundred dollars in money which she want I sold that my most first pay over to her out of my estate. And the now lot in Cornington I gave on

Nov. 3rd I first in disposing of my effects with my children, gave unto my son Hutton P. Reynolds, two thousand dollars, which amount he has received. Also my daughter Helen K. Adams, two thousand dollars, which she has received. And to my daughters Emily Reynolds, Martha A. Reynolds & Aba Reynolds they are each share to have two thousand dollars in money, or the equivalent, which amounts is intended to make them equal with my other children, that I had previously given property before the war, and taken their receipts to account for the same in the settlement of my estate. All of said receipts are hereby revoked, and null and void, and not charged to a general trust, as negroes was included in said receipts now values. I only charge them with two thousand dollars each as an advancement before the war. But all receipts that may be in my possession at my decease dated and given since eighteen hundred and forty six, is chargeable as an advance under this will, as a proportionable share for the amount so advanced.

Item 4th. It is my will, after the foregoing legacies are paid off, to my beloved wife and the for-named children, that the remainder of my estate shall be equally distributed and say that they saw Armund Reynolds sign said and publish the same paper as his last will and testament, which of course dispenses mind and memory that persons subscribed the same as witnesses, while special instance and respect of testator, while in his presence, and in the presence of them who also subscribed the same as witnesses, in testator's presence, and that said witnesses all subscribed said will in the presence of each other, and that said will was freely and voluntarily executed, on the 20th day of November 1871.

Done & subscribed before me in open Court this 11th day of April 1873.

John G. Reynolds

J. W. Shepherd

D. A. Thompson Jr.

Newton Court of Ordinary
April Term 1873.

In open Court personally called Thomas J. Shepherd and David A. Thompson Jr. two of the subscribing witnesses to a paper purporting to be a codicil to his last will and testament of Armund Reynolds, deceased, who being duly sworn depose and say that they saw Armund Reynolds, sign, seal and publish the codicil attached to his last will, while of sound and disposing mind and memory, that Reynolds subscribed the same as witnesses, in presence of testator, at his special instance and request, in his presence, that Alfred McQuinn subscribed the same also as a witness, in testator's presence, and that said witnesses all subscribed said codicil in the presence of testator, and of each other, and that codicil was freely and voluntarily executed on the 17th day of February 1873.

Done & subscribed

before me in open Court this 11th day of April 1873.
J. W. Shepherd

J. W. Shepherd
D. A. Thompson Jr.

Georgia
Newton County

We do solemnly swear that the aforesaid writing contains the true last will and testament of the within named Armund Reynolds, deceased, so far as we know or believe, and that we will with and truly execute the same in accordance with the laws of this State, which are God-

Seem to be subscribed before me this 11th day of April 1873.
J. W. Shepherd

John G. Reynolds
J. P. Reynolds
R. H. H. H. H.

Proven in Common form of law and admitted to records at the April Term 1873 of the Court of Ordinary of Newton County.
J. W. Shepherd
D. A. Thompson Jr.

Sylvester A. Hough

In the name of God! Amen!
I, Sylvester A. Hough, of the County of Newton and State of Georgia, being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

And first I commit my soul to God! who gave it. My worldly estate I dispose of as follows:

I mean that all my just debts be paid.