to us, and being only sworn before and say that they each of them saw the said Thomas Dunge before and that each of them saw the same to be his last will and testament and content, and they each of them signed the same as witnesses in the presence of the said Thomas Dunge and in full view of each other that at the time of signing sealing and publishing the same the said Thomas was of sound and sound mind and memory and that he executed the same freely of his own accord and without compulsion or fear as we know or believe
