disposing mind and memory, being of sound last will and testament, make this my

Item 2nd

I will that my body be buried in a plain and decent manner.

Item 3rd

I will that everything I possess both real and personal be taken possession of by my wife, Mrs. Alice Travis, after my death with as little legal ceremony as possible, and used as follows:

Item 4th

I will that she appropriate or use enough of what I leave to graduate my sons, William D. Travis and Robert D. Travis, in Emory College.

Item 5th

Should she remain my widow until Robert D. Travis graduates, then she can do with what is left of my estate, as she pleases, distribute it either by gift or by will.

Item 6th

Should she marry again before my sons William D. Travis and Robert D. Travis graduate, I will that she appropriate one half of my estate secured in such a way that they will receive the benefit of it in the way of education and graduation at Emory College.

Item 7th

Should there be any of the appropriation left at the graduation of Robert D. Travis, I will that it be divided equally between my three sons, John D., William D., and Robert D. Travis, whether they all be of age or not.

I hereby appoint my wife, Mrs. Alice Travis, executrix of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof
I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 29th day of September 1887.

Signed and sealed as
