

Georgia County, I, William Adams of said County and State being of sound mind and memory and knowing that it is appointed for all to die the time of life is uncertain, and that I desire to dispose of my property and own name, do hereby author publish and declare the following to contain my last will and testament hereby recording my said will and all other Mills by me at any time heretofore made.

I leave the first

It is my will that my body receive a decent and Christian interment.

I love the sound.

It is my will that after my death all my just debts be paid without delay

Don't think

It is my will that all and singular my real personal and mixed estate go unto the immediate possession and control of my wife Susan D. Adams, there to remain and be made use for the support of my said wife beyond said wife for the support and education of my minor children and for the general advancement of my property

And whenever and at such time as either of unmarried children shall marry or arrive at the age of twenty one years my wife shall advance to such child or children who shall marry or become of age such an amount of ~~money~~ ^{property} as shall be about equal in value to the property that I have already given to my married children my wife being at liberty to designate what the property shall consist in.

I have the honor to

It is my will that no Inventory or Appraisement of my estate be taken during the life time of me wife unless she should marry if she should not as to whether she may do, that the usual Society and Affair must not be taken by my friends hereof the opportunity I do not take nor would I have an interesting career because I would fall conference in the management and fidelity of my wife and whenever and at such times as my wife shall die or should marry then my friends are to take possession of my estate and the usual accountability to begin and end before.

I have the best

It is my will that should my wife marry, that my executors proceed to divide my estate equally among all my children married and unmarried, my wife receiving a child's part or an equal division with them. But should my wife not marry then at her death I will call my unmarried children to receive such a sum of my estate as will make them equal to those who are married. And after all are made equal then I want the remainder or rest of my estate to be equally divided among all my children so that they shall all receive the same sum of my estate.

It is the right

It is my will that in addition to the power I have already given my wife in and under that in this Will, that she have full power to buy or sell give better or change my property into any other property that she may deem slender keeping in mind that with the other power before said only remove during her natural life.
