

State of Georgia,
Rondale County.

I, W. M. Holifield, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others, by me here before made.

1. I desire that my just debts be paid without delay, by my executors hereinafter named and appointed.

2. I give, bequeath and devise to my two sisters, Lucy and Laura Holifield, all of my property of every description.

3. I hereby constitute and appoint as the Co. Executors of this my last will and testament my two sisters, Lucy and Laura Holifield, and I expressly confer upon them power, as such, to administer my estate, releasing them from giving bond or making any return to the Ordinary.

This 23, day of November 1935

W. M. Holifield

signed, sealed, declared and published by W. M. Holifield as his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testator, after he had signed his name hereto, and at his special instance and request, and in the presence of each other.
