Have you noticed how "chummy" everybody has gotten lately with the profs? Indeed, as the poet would say, "There's a method in their madness." Can't you guess why? The exams come Can't you guess why? The exams come Thursday, and Friday of next week, therefore the aforesaid "deep" feeling of 'friendabli,' Perhaps your don't get the full significance of the word 'feel-ing." Instead of being "feeling of 'friendablin," it is rather a "feeling friendablin," Everyydody is attempting to 'feel out his marks, and his respec-tive chances of escenping the "seachers" tive chances of escaping the "teachers' joy," otherwise known as the exams.

On Morday the whole freshman class went on the annual trip to Stone Mountain. This was called a field trip, but there was some error here for it was there was some entry and contrainly no field trip, but a mountain climb. Everyone started with a most laudable ambitton of or great things, but a mountain climb. Everyone started were all the photon, and about ten pounds besides. Judging by the general appearance just after the return, and by previous perisonal experience, the main twice and the was accomplished from the fact that it has a saminated some hundred or more initials, as the same now, as it was before giald to find a comething that the freshmen can't.
