REGIMENTAL ORDERS.

Savannah, May 26, 1789.

AN express having this moment arrived from Col. Maxwell, of Liberty county, giving a distressing and very alarming account of the depredations and murders committed by the Indians at Le Conte's fort, and the frontiers of this county, It is therefore Ordered, That the militia of Chatham county do hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's warning. For the present the Great and Little Ogechee companies, under proper officers, will march immediately for Le Conte's fort; a Captain's command of the militia in town, and its environs, will march with dispatch to Fort Mian, where they will take possession of the fort, and govern themselves in such a manner as will prevent any imposition from the enemy; Capt Lloyd will also furnish one piece of artillery, under proper officers and men, to attend this detachment; and the Major will command the whole. The Adjutant will order a Town Guard for duty immediately, to be kept at the Court-house, commanded by a Subaltern, who will mount guard every evening, seven o'clock, to patrol the town, and prevent a surprise: The officer will call on the Commandant for private orders.

BEN. FISHBOURN, Lieut. Col.
Commandant of the Chatham Militia.
