Sally Jack,

Tennessee.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of recent date, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them, or to state just how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 28,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Please advise this office the date of the birth and the date of the death of Lucy Jack, as requested in our letter to you of May 22, 1907.

Very respectfully,

My name is Sally Jack. My age is 38 years.
My mother was Sallie Sexton, and Sallie Lambert before marriage.
I have not heard from my mother in two years. There were two children older than me. I never heard my mother say how old she was when George was born. My mother is something like 76 or 77. She was never married before she married James Sexton. I never heard my mother say where she was born. I was living two miles west of Newport when I first remember.
I have been living in Monroe County about ten years. I knew my grandmother Mary Lambert. She died just before I moved away. She was a very old woman. I have heard my mother say that she had Indian blood and that she was half-Cherokee.
My grandmother was a whole Indian. I never heard my mother or my grandmother say that they got any money as Indians.
I think I would have heard it if they had received it.
I never heard of my mother or my grandmother living among the Indians. Martha Sexton lived in South Carolina the last
I heard of her. My mother was in Cooke County close to Bybee
T. O. I have written there and have not had any answer. Mr.
John Lovell might know about my Indian blood.

Residence near Marietta, Ga.

"Mr. Chapman says he could not find them. They are upon Siler's list rejected. Siler told him that he considered them entitled. Could find no proof of their descent, through General Mansell, a distinguished lawyer of Marietta, considers them of Cherokee origin, also several other persons. The list of the children is reliable. All of these persons were on Siler's roll but stricken off. Siler reported that he appeared to be half Indian and poses as "Indian John". Tidwell referred him to a certain gentleman as to his right. That gentleman did not remember him. Other persons "Tidwell" said that he is certainly a Cherokee. By a note made in the office on this roll Siler it appears they were rejected because their names or the name of the head of the family was not found to be on the Census of 1835."

APPLICANTS CLAIMING THROUGH JOHN TIDWELL (OR YOUNG DEER) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

#16

The names of John Tidwell and those of his family do not appear on either the Roll of 1835, Chapman Roll of 1851, or Hester Roll of 1882. Siler enrolled John Tidwell and his family, but their names were subsequently stricken off the roll, because their names, or the name of the head of the family, did not appear on the Roll of 1835. This family, after their names were stricken off the roll, was again considered for enrollment by the Secretary of the Interior and again rejected, for they were not placed on the Act of Congress Roll of 1858.

In consideration of the premises, therefore, the applications herein of all persons claiming through John Tidwell and his descendants are rejected.

Mr. Elijah Banes,
Day, Taney County, Mo.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter of August 23, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to participate in this fund, or how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 35,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

There will be no allotments of land in connection with this payment.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, please state whether your father or mother were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe in 1861, and where they resided at that time. Were your parents married in 1861?

Can you furnish us with evidence tending to establish the fact that your parents or grandparents were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe of Indians at the date of the Treaty of 1835-36 and 1846? If so, please state what the evidence is, and send us the names and correct addresses of any witnesses who will testify to that effect.

Antila A. Courtney, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

William I am 66 years of age; was born inolk County, Mo. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my mother, Lucy Brown. I have never gotten any Indian money from the government. My mother lived in Missouri about three years before I was born. She was married when she came to Missouri. I saw my mother's parents when I was small. They had come from Tennessee to Missouri. ~~My grandfather Alexander Brown, and grandmother Mary Ann Brown were my mother's parents.~~ I do not remember him. I think he was enrolled in Georgia in 1835. I am not a Cherokee allottee. I never tried for any land or money prior to this time. We have lived in the Territory about twenty years. I never tried to get any land. My grandfather and grandmother were married. My mother was born in Georgia. My grandfather went from Georgia to Texas and then he came back to Georgia and was enrolled there. I have heard of my Indian blood ever since I can remember. My mother always taught us that we had Cherokee blood.

IN RE APPLICANTS CLAIMING THROUGH ALEXANDER BROWN AND HIS CHILDREN, THOMAS, JOHN, ISOM, ANNIS, SALLIE AND

DIOTIE BROWN. # 35

Applicants herein claim to be descendants of the Alexander Brown whose name appears on the roll of 1835, enrolled at Costenolles River, Ga. The Alexander Brown on the roll was enrolled with two others, making a family of three, 2 males under 18, and one male over 18, being Alexander Brown himself, all half breeds. No reserves or descendants of reserves.

The substance of the evidence in the case contained in affidavits, and testimony is given below:

Nancy M. Seadley, appl. #39591, misc. test., Page 2232, states she claims through her father, John Brown, son of Isom Alexander Brown, and her father was born in Virginia in 1814. Isom Alexander Brown was probably the son of Alexander Brown, the original ancestor. She states that her grandfather, Brown lived with the Cherokees in Virginia, and that her father lived with the Cherokees in Virginia.

Michael A. Fender, appl. #2242, misc. test. page 2016, states that he was born in Monroe Co., Tenn. in 1829; that he claims through his mother, Diotie Boyd, nee Brown, and that his mother was born in Virginia; that his mother got her Indian blood from her father, Alexander Brown; does not know where the latter was born; that he died in 1838 in Polk Co., Mo. that he had been two years in Missouri before his death; that his grandfather, Alexander Brown was living during the fall and winter of 1835 in Illinois near St. Louis, Mo.; that the wife of Alexander Brown was a white woman; that neither he nor any of his ancestors have received any money or land, and were never enrolled with the exception of Alexander Brown, whom he states was enrolled in Tennessee in 1835 in Monroe Co. That neither he nor his mother ever lived with the Cherokee Indians as a member of the tribe and he does not know of his grandfather ever living with the Cherokee Indians as a member of the tribe; that his grandfather lived as a white settler in Missouri, among white people; does not know how much Indian blood his grandfather had; that in 1851 he and his mother were living in Polk Co., Mo. In 1835 they were living in Illinois, and came from Tennessee with his grandfather, Alexander Brown.

Samuel T. G. Anglen, a. l. #2658, misc. test. page 2017, states that he was born in Polk Co., Mo. in 1850, and that his mother was born in the same place in 1832; that his mother got her Indian blood through her father, Thomas Brown, who was a son of Alexander Brown; claims that Alexander Brown lived with the Cherokees as a member of the tribe in Tennessee; does not know whether his grandfather, Thomas Brown, ever lived with the Cherokees as a member of the tribe or not; states that neither he nor his mother nor his grandfather, Thomas Brown, were ever enrolled or ever received any money or land from the Government on account of Indian blood; he claims that his great grandfather, Alexander Brown, was enrolled; does not know on what roll. That his great grandfather, Alexander Brown, was 1/2 Cherokee.

Special Report
Alex. Brown

James Harralson, age 80 states in an affidavit of July 30, 1906, that he was acquainted with Alexander Brown; that he came from McKinn or Monroe Co., Tenn. and settled in Polk Co., Mo. on or about the year 1835 or 1837; that when he first knew Alexander Brown he lived in Tennessee; that he heard he came from Georgia to Tennessee. He states that he has "a very clear and distinct recollection of hearing the said Alexander Brown say that he was registered or that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians prior to his leaving Tennessee, and I have heard him tell this both before he left Tennessee and after he came to Missouri". That Alexander Brown was 1/2 Cherokee Indian. He states that Alexander Brown had the following children: "Thomas, Isaac, John, Jack, Sarah (Hambleton), Dicey, Elizabeth (Ruth), Susan (Proctor), Annis (Pace) and Violet (Ruth)".

Russell Stokes, age 86, in his affidavit of July 31, 1906, states that he was acquainted with Alexander Brown after he came to Polk Co., Mo. which was about the year 1835 or 1836; that Alex. Brown told him that he was half Cherokee and that he came to Missouri from Tennessee. He further states that "he told him that he had his papers showing his Indian rights, and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians; the said Alexander Brown has always claimed to be 1/2 blood Cherokee Indian, and he has children claiming to be part Indian and were recognized and reputed to be such by all who knew them". This affiant and others state that Alexander Brown was a tall man, broad shouldered, rather slim with dark hair and eyes and dark complexion.

Michael Fender in his affidavit of August 6, 1906 states that he is 77 years old; that he was well acquainted with Alex. Brown, who was his grandfather; that he came from McKinn Co., Tenn. and that he lived about 4 or 5 miles from his father's residence in Tenn., and that he can remember his being in his father's house several times. That when Alexander Brown left Tennessee and came to Missouri "there were about 6 families came together, including my father's family and Alexander Brown's family, said families were all related to each other. We left Tennessee in the fall of 1833, and came to a place in Illinois 15 or 18 miles east of St. Louis, and stopped there over the winter and in the spring coming on to what is now known as Brighton, Polk Co., Mo. arriving there May 10, 1836. I was with them during their journey from Tenn." That Alexander Brown was 1/2 blood Cherokee; that he was enrolled as a Cherokee Indian on the roll of 1835; that he died in 1838.

From the above, it appears that it is unknown when Alex. Brown was born - that there is contradiction in the evidence as to where he was living in 1835, the weight of it being to the effect, however, that he was in Illinois or Missouri at that time. There is some also to the effect that he was in Tenn. The weight of the evidence is that Alexander Brown lived in Tennessee prior to coming west, - only one person, James Harralson in his affidavit stating that he "heard he (Alex. Brown) came from Ga. to Tenn." The Alexander Brown on the 1835 roll was enrolled in Georgia. He was enrolled with two males under 18 years. Alexander Brown, ancestor of applicants herein had several children, at least six, and most of them must have been over 18 years of age in 1835.

Michael Fender testified that he was born in Monroe Co., Tenn. in 1829, and that his mother, Dicey Boyd, who was a daughter of Alexander Brown was born in Virginia. The name of Boyd or Fender does not appear on 1835 roll. If Dicey Boyd was a daughter of the Alexander Brown on the 1835 roll, why was she not enrolled at that time. If she were not enrolled because she had gone west prior to 1835, she could not be considered as a member of the Eastern Cherokee tribe at that time or her descendants be beneficiaries under the decree of the Court of Claims herein.

Nancy M. Seadley states that her father who was a grand son of Alexander Brown was born in Virginia in 1814, and that her father and grandfather lived with the Cherokees in Virginia. It would thus appear that applicants ancestor, Alexander Brown, originally came from Virginia and lived with some Indians there not the Cherokees as they, as is well known, never lived in Va.

If applicants ancestor, Alexander Brown, had left Tenn. prior to 1835, to which effect is the weight of evidence, he could not have been enrolled in Tennessee or Georgia in 1835, and the Alexander Brown on the 1835 roll could not be applicants ancestor.

The statements of affiants to the effect that Alexander Brown told them that he was enrolled with the Cherokee Indians prior to his leaving Tennessee, should be discounted when considering the above affiants at that time, that such statements would have hardly made such an impression upon a child.

In consideration of the premises, the applications of all persons claiming through Alexander Brown and his children, Thomas, Dicey, Isaac, Jack, Sarah, Susan, Annis and Violet are hereby rejected.
