

On (torn) of March last, being at M^E James Cas (torn) Store on Great Sattila, where about thirty White People had Croft on their way to St Marys; when they had left the House a short distance, they were fired on by a Party of Indians, some of them fled back to the Store and Croft the River, being pursued that far, the next day returning found three Men an a One Child dead on the Ground, one of the Men Scalped

Joseph T. Hardy

Newport 1st of April ?
1793 }