

Dropped Dead.

James Cunningham, a forty-year-old negro, in apparently good health, dropped dead in the stockade this morning at 8:40 o'clock. An inquest will be held to-day. Cunningham was serving a sentence of twenty-one and a half days in the stockade for disorderly conduct and quarreling. His sentence would have expired the 20th of this month.