Death of James Kelly.

James Kelly, a flagman on the East Tennessee road, who was injured near Austell a week ago last Monday, died at his mother's home, 365 Decatur street, yesterday afternoon, of a ruptured artery in the leg. His condition has been fluctuating for several days, and his ultimate death was no surprise to his physician. Mr. Kelly was about 30 years old. He was well known in this city, having been born and reared here. About two years ago his wife and infant were lost in the ocean steamship City of Columbus. He leaves a widowed mother to mourn his loss.
