

took place to-day.

The remains of S. D. Tussey, the young man who died at St. Joseph's Infirmary Saturday night, were sent to Arch Springs, Penn., his old home, yesterday for burial. He was 33 years old at the time of his death and had been in Atlanta five years. His brother, from Jersey City, was with him when he died.

man
The
tigs

and

55

the