AMUSEMENTS.

A GREAT MUSICAL EVENT.

Next Thesday, January 22d, for one night only, the Grand Campanini Operatic Company will give a grand concert in Atlants including the third act of the beautiful opera of Gounod, "Faust." We cannot better introduce the distinguished singers served seats. Signor Campanini makes his first visit to Charleston.

He needs no introduction to those who keep up with the history of the lyric stage in America. His name is a bousehold word.

It is also as well to mention that Signor Campanini does not pretend for present grand opers as the public understand ties term. He does not travel with the grand orchestrs (on pffer), which invariably, served to the stage of the second production of t audiences, except perhaps that the academy of music will hardly be able to hold

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club and the Polymani Club Concert.

The lovers of good music will learn with delight that the famous Boston club will want and will give, with our laddle Polymanis club, a grand vocal and instrumental concert. These concerts, everyody knows it, have been, in the past, royal feasat for our numic that for the most fastilions musicians. The choice of the pieces executed by them has always been done among the most melodious productions of the masters, and their execution has always been so artistically perfect as to piease the best educated diletanta. Last summer. Mr. Thomas Ryan, the veteran manager of the Boston cith, has reorganized completely the quintette. He went to The conditions the conditions of the most mention of the conditions of the conditions with him and give, if possible, a will better cutertainment than ever before. tive artists he could find to associate them with him and give, if possible, a still better entertainment than ever before. Our people can therefore expect a race treat.

As for our buildings Polymnis club complete the country, we know how much we have reasons to be proud of it. To hear them in their beautiful singing is a great pleasure, and when they deign to appear we are certain to see the clie and chitrally of our city go. The program of both clubs will be entirely new.

Nature's Own True Laxastive.
The delicious favor and healthy properties of sound, ripe fruit are well-known, and sceing the need of an agreeable and effective laxastive, the California Fig Syrup Company commenced a few years ago to manufacture a concentrated Syrup of Figs, which has given such general satisfaction that it is rapidly superseding the bitter, drastic liver medicines and eatharties hitherto in use. If costive or billious, try it. 1-19
