

DEATH OF MRS. J. R. COLLINS.

The Passing Away of a Most Lovable
Christian Wife—The Funeral

Last night at the residence of Mr. W. J. Collins, 194 Angier avenue, Mrs. J. R. Collins passed away.

A few days ago while visiting the family of Mr. W. J. Collins, she was taken ill, and never recovered sufficiently to be taken to her home on the Boulevard.

Mrs. Collins bore her illness with Christian fortitude and when she died it was with a happy smile on her face.

A few minutes before her death, she passed into a deep slumber, but during the last few moments of life she opened her eyes and recognized the loved ones about her bedside. She bade her husband good bye and passed peacefully away into the realms of light.

Mrs. Collins was well known in Atlanta, and those with whom she came in contact admired and loved her beautiful character.

Three years ago she was married to Mr. J. R. Collins, the well known deputy marshal. She was the daughter of Mr. John Carey. Mrs. Collins leaves one child.

The funeral will occur tomorrow morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception.
