YO. DR. COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION
Will be of value to the world by illustrating the improvements in the mechanical arts and eminent physicians will tell you that the progress in medicinal agents, has been of equal importance, and a strengthening laxative that Sarsaparilla is far in advance of all others.

Young Harris Notes.

Young Harris is this week reeking with bonanzas sung by our famed choir, while the mountains are made to echo with the superb eloquence of some of Young Harris' most distinguished orators.

Rev. W. D. Anderson D. D., minister of Sunday, which was a master piece of oratory.

Rev. Dr. Heidt, of Atlanta, preached the Missionary sermon; he is an able man physically and mentally, and handled his subject admirably.

The discourse to the young ministers delivered by Rev. S. R. Bels, of Gainesville, was good. The Juniors acquitted themselves in a creditable manner, the original matter being exceptionally good.

The commencement up to date has been a decided success. Among the visitors might be mentioned Prof. Chas. Lane, of Atlanta, who delivered a lecture Saturday night, entitled "The Analysis of Laughter," which was appreciated by all, and especially by Bro. Heidt.

Rev. J. B. Robbins, W. D. Anderson, S. R. Bels, T. D. Dubois, M. J. Coffey, Col. Robinson, and George Wellborn, Col. Wier Boyd and Marion Boyd, of Dahlonega, Rev. Dillard and wife, Mr. Geo. Quillian and wife, of Belton, accompanied by Mrs. Holt, Quillian, and Miss Rose Quillian. Many cannot be mentioned on account of shortage of space.

The Telsutograph.
A wonderful invention just brought to the attention of the public, is a thousand-mile pen, reaching from Boston to Chicago. By this invention a correspondent can sit down to his instrument in Boston and with two little

When cords attached to his pen or pencil write not only his letter in Boston, but a facsimile copy of it in Chicago, without a dot to an i or a rose to a t being omitted. Sitting in Boston he can also make a picture of a person a flower, a burning building or street fight in Chicago. He can sign a note, draft or check, or make a written contract a thousand miles distant from where he sits. This wonderful invention is called the telegraph, and a man's presence is no longer necessary in a place to affix his autograph.
