Men who make money by farm-ing, do most of their plowing at this season of the year. There never was finer weather for sowing grain and turning land.

What was the outcome of the meeting in which it was agreed to improve out school property, and build cabins for the use of families who live at a distance?

The legislature is in session. We sincerely hope it will devote a good part of its time to the needed reform of our public school laws, and the convict question.

Editor Shaver advertises eggs for sale, and says the breed of chickens they will produce are ansurpased as frys. Don't believe it; an editor knows absolutely nothing of such a thing as fry. Shaver's evidence is merely bearsay. ly hearsny.

The senate confirmed The senate confirmed Van Alen's appointment to Rome. That is one good thing they have done, at least. We would pre-sent a sorry spectacle as a nation did we allow the pattern of a collar, or the cut of trussers. Grupe in the selection of our foro in the se resentatives.

With plenty of corn in his crib, lat hogs in the pen, peas, potatoes, p anute and sorghum in abundance and "mountain dew" in the jug, what matters it to the North Georgia farmers if the price of cotton does fluctuate between 7 and 8 cents and silver is not yet free?—Toccoa News.

Operations at the Loud min Thite county, are being acin White coursy, are trively pushed. The rich vein discovered some time ago is being worked and much gold being taken from it. We learn that Mr. R. K. Reaves, the owner, was offered $50,000 for the mine, but it was refused. He holds it at $75,000.—Nugget.
