The Treaty of Peace.

VENICE, March 6.—A special from St. Petersburg says that it is confirmed that the treaty includes a clause providing for indemnification must be paid to Russia. London, March 6.—A reliable source that France and Italy intend to propose the neutralization of Bosphorus and Dardanelles. Lord Lyons has arrived here from Paris.

Constantinople, under date March 6, to Reuters' says that the treaty bears the title, "Preliminary of peace," and contains only nine articles. The articles relate to the Bosphorus and Dardanelles, and Bulgaria. The treaty is stipulated to be signed there any mention of Bulgaria is omitted. The Russian three sub-articles in the treaty, which relate to the Bosphorus and Dardanelles, and Bulgaria, are completely swept away and the treaty is completely scattered in every direction.

In the village of Mt. Olive, seven houses were swept away and the remainder otherwise injured. The houses were blown away from the whole course of the tornado, the posts and rails of fences being drawn out and torn into splinters and utterly destroyed. Large trees twisted from their roots and carried hundreds of yards.

A considerable number of houses, cattle and other stock were nearly all the poultry in its course were killed. The pecuniary damage is not less than $50,000.

The second growth as it were of the shipping post, has received a set-back. This occurred in Kentucky, where a bill for its establishment went swimmingly through the lower house, but failed in the senate by the tie. He put his veto on the bill, and the bill is now in the hands of the senate.

A letter from a Louisianaian now residing in Massachusetts to a friend in New Orleans, says that Franklin W. Smith, and Boston capitalists have resolved that they will plant colonies of farmers and mechanics on lands purchased by the companies in the western and southern states, giving them a long time to pay for their plans practically. They intend to plant their first colony in Kansas, and their second colony in east Tennessee or west Carolina.

These capitalists have concluded, after a complete inquiry into the hard times that afflict the country, in self defense, and for the safety of the nation, must take up the industrial and land question of more importance than silver bills or party politics. They hold that capital will help fill up the idle lands of the country with times will improve in proportion as the unemployed are provided with lands.—New Orleans Picayune.

NEW ORLEANS TIMES: As an inducement to cotton growers in the Southern States east of this city to ship that staple to Europe via New Orleans, the Cotton Press Association proposes on the 1st of September next to reduce the price of compressing to forty cents a bale. This, it is confident, will bring to the port an immense fleet of foreign vessels, the carrying capacity of which is required depth of water upon the bar, and the ready admission of the steamers, coupled with reduced freight rates, will give to vessels leaving New Orleans almost a monopoly of the carrying trade, and will, of course, greatly increase the business of all those who deal in fuel and ship supplies.

Speaking of the hard times in New York city, "Mahlshtet" writes to the Courier-Journal that "the ground of the business men can be heard, in a still night, several miles out to sea."

Spring weather makes the best of us feel rather lazy.

Mr. Aaron Walker informs us that he has discovered myriads of young grasshoppers in his wheat fields during the past week. They do not injure wheat on cotton, clover, peas, corn, etc. It is supposed that the recent warm spell hatched them out, and it may be enough to kill them off. If so, their early incubation will prove a blessing to the farmers.—Boonesville (Tenn.) States.

In his "Impeccable Abroad," Mark Twain, in speaking of the roads in Italy and France, says: "Why these roads are as adamant as straight as a line, as smooth as a floor, and as white as snow. When it is too hot to see any other object, one can still see the white turnpikes of France and Italy; and they are clean enough to eat from without a tablecloth."

If the patriots are going to restore the franking privilege they ought also to provide for circulating newspapers through the mails free of postage.

Unless we are greatly at fault in our judgment, the time is not far distant when gold, silver, and greenbacks will be practically of equal value. When this becomes the case all reasons for hoarding money will cease, and the flow of currency from the great money centers will commence again, bringing new life and spirit into all portions of the country.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Another consignment of bat manna from one of the caves in Llanos country reached this city this morning, and was shipped per one of the Morgan steamers. So far there has been received about forty tons of this manna, which is pronounced by those who have chemically examined it to be the equal of the best guano ever imported into this country. In appearance it looks somewhat like coffee ground intermingled with steel filings and parched rice beans. It comes to this place in barrels, and is being used to form a feature in the commerce of the port.—Galveston News.

THE FIELD AND FIRESIDE.

Mr. Aaron Walker informs us that he has discovered myriads of young grasshoppers in his wheat fields during the past week. They do not injure wheat on cotton, clover, peas, corn, etc. It is supposed that the recent warm spell did them out, and it may be enough to kill them off. If so, their early incubation will prove a blessing to the farmers. Bonnaville (Tenn.) States.

In his "Innocents Abroad," Mark Twain, in speaking of the roads in Italy and France, says: "Why these roads are as adamant as straight as a line, as smooth as a floor, and as white as snow. When it is too good to see any other object, one can still see the white turnpikes of France and Italy; and they are clean enough to eat from without a fork."

If the patriots are going to restore the franking privilege they ought also to provide for circulating newspapers through the mails free of postage.

Unless we are greatly at fault in our judgment, the time is not far distant when gold, silver, and greenbacks will be practically of equal value. When this becomes the case all reasons for hoarding money will cease, and the flow of currency from the great money centers will commence again, bringing new life and spirit into all portions of the country. Montgomery Advertiser.

The Paris Rothschilds, who are as hard as they were beginning their fortune. They observe their office hours as punctually as does the poorest clerk. There is a popular belief that they hope to execute the dream of the rebuilding of the temple and the city of Jerusalem.

Another consignment of bat manure from one of the caves in Llano county reached this city this morning, and was shipped per one of the Morgan steamers. So far there has been received a total of forty tons of this manure, which is pronounced by those who have chemically examined its properties to be the equal of the best guano ever imported into this country. In appearance it looks something like coffee ground intermingled with steel filings and parched rice beans. It comes to this place in barrels, and is being used to form a feature in the commerce of the port. Galesville News.
