

THE FIELD AND FIRESIDE.

Oct. 22, 1877.

The Marietta Paper Manufacturing Company, at lowest prices.

The Dollar Weekly.
It is the time to save a dollar. Have your names on the Field and Fireside.

Announcements of Congress.
The Legislature will be held in the House on the 23rd inst. Tickets will be printed at low prices.

The receipts and market prices of wool and New York are on an upward tendency.

Copper Mines.
The B. Henderson has furnished a quantity of ore obtained at a depth of twenty feet from the south District of Harding. The ore is traced for miles north and west. This is the beginning of the development of the best mineral regions in the State.

Fair.
The number of people who attended the Fair in 1876 were 25,000. The fair is a great success. The gamblers, pickpockets and rascals, seem to have created the greatest sensations.

The President's Message.
The message of the President is brief and sensible, referring to the immediate business for which Congress is convened. The appropriations necessary to carry on the affairs of the government.

Cotton of Crops.
The cotton crop seems destined to undergo a decrease of acreage, while Tobacco, Cane and other crops are largely increased, all over the South and West.

Cleopatra's Needles.
The craft containing one of the Obelisks, on its voyage from Alexandria to England was abandoned by the conveying steamer in storm and afterwards recovered ninety miles south of Feroi, Spain.

The other Obelisk from the same locality in Egypt, is soon to be carried to New York for erection in that City. They are of the age of Ramesses, and of great altitude.

We are indebted to our Representative in Congress, Hon. Wm. H. Felton, for copies of the Congressional Record. From the address of Speaker Randall to the House, we quote the following paragraph:
"I assume we will take no step backward in the work of retrenchment and reform so unapologetically begun by the House under a hitherto and definite plan of reduction in the expenditures of the Government. It is certain still greater reductions can be made without impairing the efficiency of administration. To have honest administration, it should be small. Never before was it more small than now, with general fiscal distress, and labor depressed by heavy burdens, to exercise sternest economy. When the scale of hard necessity darkens every household in the land, extravagance on the part of the people's servants, is an unpardonable crime."

The Biggest Snake in America.
In Louisiana they have found one Anacoconda, or Boa Constrictor. It had crushed a calf and was preparing to swallow it when it was killed by repeated rounds of ball.

the centre of the body about forty two inches. It has a regular succession of spots black and yellow, alternating, extending from its head to its tail, while either side is a deep purple. No doubt this snake has for many years inhabited that section of country, and depredated upon the young calves and animals that come within its reach. The skin of this huge snake has been preserved, and will be sent to Shreveport and put on exhibition.

Russ Meeting.
MARIETTA, Oct. 12th, 1877.
To the Editors of Cobb County:

Whereas, the Executive Committee of the Democratic Party of said county, having been requested by the chairman of said committee to meet at this place this day, to take some action in regard to holding a convention for the purpose of nominating suitable candidates to represent this county in the next Legislature; and whereas, the time being short when we should know what should be done, we the undersigned citizens, including a part of said Executive Committee, hereby call a MASS MEETING of the citizens of Cobb county, to meet at the Court House, on the first Tuesday in November next, for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent said county in the next Legislature, and also to elect delegates to the Senatorial Convention, to nominate a Senator for the 35th senatorial district. D. N. McEachern, W. B. Howell, H. M. Hammett, J. E. Mozley, Roswell King, E. Denmead, E. C. Harris, A. A. Winn, R. H. Marchman, E. J. Setze, Wm. F. Groves, J. L. Root, Geo. W. Cleland, T. J. Atkinson, G. R. Gilbert, J. B. Glover, W. B. Pilgrim, G. T. Tennent, Henry C. White, W. B. Dobbs, S. N. Green.

[COMMUNICATED.]
If the Atlanta Constitution yields the influence for Atlanta it claims on the Capitol question in controlling the mind of the State, what will be the influence of Atlanta over the Legislature?

[COMMUNICATED.]
Demoralized.
It is frequently said, in conversation, that the people are demoralized. I understand by this that the successful accumulation of money or position is an effort ranking higher in general esteem than virtue and rectitude. It matters not, it is said, by what means the money or position is attained, the secure possession obtains from mankind all the esteem which should alone be awarded to the undeviating friend of virtue and truth. Be this as it may, it is apparent that such rectitude in deception and hypocrisy have been reached in social, political and religious issues, that character, age and virtue, when brought in conflict with audacious hypocrisy, is not unfrequently driven to the wall, with few to sympathize with their misfortune. This is lamentable, as we can never on such a foundation, found the basis for a social fabric worthy of the esteem of the great and good, or which does not carry with it the elements of its own destruction. It sometimes happens that the corruption of the body politic appears most virulent when it is making the greatest efforts to slough off its impurities. This is a more hopeful view of the subject.

Malaria may think that society needs no advice; but have ventured with these remarks notwithstanding. VERITAS.

American Wheat.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Times today, in its financial article, says: "Since the beginning of the present year we have imported 228,000,000 worth of wheat, against 218,000,000 worth last year. Curiously enough, increased supplies have not yet come from the United States, which sent us nearly 4,000,000 cwt. less this year than last. Our chief sources of extra supply are from British India, Russia, Germany, France and Egypt. No doubt India, Egypt and Russia have been stimulated to export more largely than usual by their financial necessities, but their harvests are none the less significant on that account. It is just possible that the corn dealers in the United States may hold back a little too long in hope of obtaining higher prices, and it is quite evident from the ease of the market at present that it will not yet at all events bear squeezing."

The War.
LONDON, Oct. 16.—A Russian official dispatch, dated headquarters army of the Caucasus, Oct. 16th, says: "Yesterday the Russians gained a great victory over Mukhtar Pasha, capturing many guns and prisoners. The Turks have been driven from the road to Kars."

A dispatch from Moscow, dated 16th, says that private telegrams received there state that on Monday the Russians attacked Mukhtar Pasha's new positions. The Caucasian grenadiers stormed the Alwas hill, which formed the key to the Turkish positions. A two hours' engagement followed, resulting in the flight of Mukhtar Pasha in the direction of Kars or Ezerounn, the Russians pursuing. The Turks lost many prisoners, cannon, rifles and a large quantity of provisions.

An official dispatch received at Constantinople, dated today, locates the battle at Aladja Dagh, which is probably the same as Alwas. The dispatch says that the Russians attacked from four sides and were falling back at the time the telegram was sent off, and the final result of the battle was momentarily expected.

A Reuter telegram from Bucharest reports that the Turks have withdrawn their artillery from the second Grivaca redoubt. The Russians fear the redoubt is mined. LONDON, Oct. 16th.—An official dispatch from Mukhtar Pasha, dated Kars, Oct. 15, says: Our centre, after being exposed for four hours to an overwhelming cannon and incessant assault, was compelled to retreat, leaving Arlas hill in the hands of the enemy. The Russians then occupied all the strategic points in the direction of Kars, to which place we have withdrawn with one division to prepare our revenge. Another division, including the corps commanded by Rachid Omar, Kiurim, Movssa and Cheoik Pasha continues to hold its position on Kars Dagh.

This is doubtless the portion of Mukhtar Pasha's force which, according to a later Russian telegram, was compelled to surrender. Mukhtar Pasha says his loss is 800 horses de combat, which is obviously untrue. He claims that a regiment and a half of Russian cavalry and four battalions of infantry were totally destroyed. Mukhtar attributes his defeat to Russian reinforcements, and the fact that they were able to place their position 200 guns, served by skilled artillerymen.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—On receiving information of Mukhtar Pasha's defeat, General Plevna drew from the neighborhood of Igarka to the heights of Zoy, near the frontier. It is believed he is on the point of completely evacuating our territory.

the Russian army interfere, a march on Ezerounn may be tried early in the year.

LONDON, October 20.—The Standard has received the following telegram, dated Tiflis, Thursday: "The Russians moved on Kars yesterday. Mukhtar Pasha's left flank was completely broken. Small Pasha's army has retired into the Tergoussoff. The Russian garrison of Ardahan and Bion corps have been ordered to co-operate in the general advance."

The Standard has the following from Poodrin: The czar, addressing the general staff on Wednesday, declared that he and all the imperial family would remain with the army to share in the labors and fortunes of war and witness the deeds of the soldiers. He concluded: "I, myself, will care for the wants of the army, if necessary, all Russians will, as once before, take up their arms."

Fears of Another Eastern War.
LONDON, Oct. 15.—special despatch to the Times from Calcutta says: "It is feared that war is imminent between the British and the Ameer of Afghanistan and the Khan of Kelat in consequence of the location of a British force at Quetta, in Beloochistan, which the Khan and Ameer construe to mean the permanent occupation of that country. Though the force at Quetta is only sent avowedly as an escort yet the Viceroy declares its main tenance there is a necessary measure of imperial policy. The Ameer of Afghanistan is negotiating with the Kelat and Belooch chiefs for the forcible expulsion of the British, for which he offers his help, and warns the Khan that their continued presence means eventual absorption."

The Feeling at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The result of the Ohio election has greatly demoralized Republicans here, who generally charge the Republican defeat on Mr. Hayes. It is evident the President has few supporters among the officeholders, while the House, very Stanley Matthews, in unmeasured terms as the author of all the ills which have befallen our country. One remarked that he was glad the Democrats had carried Ohio, the result must be the retirement of Sherman from the Cabinet. Another rejoiced because Stanley Matthews was unable to resign his seat in the Senate. It was generally conceded that Pennsylvania would now go Democratic by 25,000 to 30,000, and New York by not less than double that number. The feeling among the departed and those who appear to be that the Republican party is doomed, and some who have heretofore been among its most active and determined supporters, have expressed themselves as thoroughly disgusted and indifferent as to its future. The supporters of the Administration are not at all worried, however, but take the ground that a Democratic victory was inevitable and could not have been averted by any Republican President who might have been chosen in place of Mr. Hayes. At the White House the defeat is attributed to the Greenback and Labor diversions, the temperance ticket and other local causes, and is not believed to be in any sense a condemnation of either the service reform or Southern policy.

The El Paso Mob.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Advices from El Paso show a most dangerous state of affairs. The lawless portion of El Paso County is in possession of a mob, and Americans throughout the county have abandoned their homes and fled to El Paso for safety. Judge Howard, who killed the El Paso mob, succeeded in making his escape to Mesilla, where he still remains. Cardis is said to have been the leader of the mob, and threatening, in consequence of his death. The Sheriff of El Paso is also in Mesilla, but refuses to return, with Howard, as the latter would be immediately killed by the mob, while the Sheriff himself will be killed if he dares to return without Howard. Lieutenant Payne, who is in charge of the detachment of troops, says four companies will be sent to suppress the mob. A large number of outlaws are encamped near the county seat. They declare they will fight the troops if the latter attempt to make arrests. Judge Baker is the way out, Fort Davis with troops to restore order.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The following telegram has been received here from Gen. Pope: "The difficulties at El Paso and San Elizario are entirely between the citizens of the State of Texas (Mexican and American), and I have instructed Lieut. Rucker not to interfere with them, except to prevent inroads from the Mexican side."

General News.
Col. P. Fitzsimmons, of Augusta, has been appointed by the President, Marshal of Georgia, vice Major Smythe, removed.

The Atlanta Constitution in speaking of the races at the Fair last week, says that "in an all prompt dash after the race, Newt Benson, of Cherokee saddle by the turning of his saddle over the northwest corner, was thrown violently to the ground and dragged some distance. When reached by Dr. J. M. Clements, of Chattaoga county, who was present, Benson was found to have sustained a severe fracture of the tibia just below the knee joint of the right leg. He was taken to his quarters and well attended. The fracture will be set this morning by Dr. Westmoreland and others."

The undercurrent in favor of independence is surprisingly strong in some portions of the State.

So far as the election of members of the Legislature is concerned, the Carrollton Times wants a fair field and a free fight.

Aworth wants to send one of her citizens to the Legislature from Cobb, Smith Lemon, Col. Mitchell, M. C. Awtry and A.M. Northcutt are mentioned in this connection.

What the country expects is Congress is that it will provide for the maintenance of an army sufficient for legitimate purposes; not a man less nor a man more. Mr. Hayes, we believe, will find the members of the House very level-headed on this point.—Baltimore Gazette.

The Knoxville Chronicle appeals to its readers to plant orchards, and dry the fruit as their best crop. Last year, the shipment of dried fruit from the stations on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad amounted to $128,000, and yet the markets of the world were not overstocked.

The Dallas, Texas, Herald says that the Governor will raise five or six regiments, to rendezvous at Galveston, so that in case war should commence before congress meets they could be placed on the Rio Grande without loss of time.

The San Antonio Express gives the Victoria advocate in advising the people of western Texas to plant more grain. It says "the cotton worm ravages this season, and the experiments so successfully made in the raising of small grain, is causing a great revolution in the minds of the farming community of western Texas concerning the most profitable product on which to bestow their labor. From Victoria, Tex., we learn that this season of 1877 bids fair to become an epoch in the history of cotton production in this portion of Texas. The one or two hundred bales to be sent into market from Victoria this year, a year ago, was a very small number, indicates the fearful ravages of the worm, and impels the belief that hereafter farmers will regard it as their first labor on any one particular kind of crop."

RECKMUND, Ind., Oct. 19.—John Eldy Moffet, aged seven years, adopted by a wealthy Quaker, three years ago, and kidnapped Wednesday afternoon by two Gypsies, has been recovered. His father, Charles Ross, while other boy the story.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Senator Bayard, in an interview with the Times correspondent, gave very freely his views as to the attitude of the personally understood it. He says that there is a general desire to shorten the duration of the extra session, but neither he nor any of his associates will consent to its adjournment until Senators Spofford and Eastwick of Louisiana, and Senator Butler of South Carolina, have been seated. These states are entitled under the constitution to representation in the senate, and it would be great injustice to the states to still further postpone the consideration of the cases of their representation. He said that there was no possible chance for argument in these cases. They were settled beyond any recall of judgment.

HAVANA, Oct. 15.—Advices from Santo Domingo have been received to the 5th inst. The revolution against the Basco Administration was in full force. The town of Puerto Plata was occupied by the revolutionists, who were besieging the fort, and expected to surrender momentarily. There was great agitation throughout the republic. No details had been received from the interior, as all the roads were intercepted and communication was impossible. General Bulgar, of Venezuela, had arrived at Samana.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The Smithsonian Institution is in receipt of a telegram from Professor Peters, Clinton, N. Y., announcing the discovery this morning of a planet of the eleventh magnitude in 1 hour and 5 minutes right ascension, 7 degrees 55 minutes north declination, and a south motion.

TORONTO, Ont., October 12.—The Monetary Times, in an article discussing the late harvest with that of former years, considers it exceptionally bountiful; estimates that 30,000,000 bushels of wheat and 10,000,000 bushels of barley have been harvested, the figures for the former year grain raising probably exceed 48,000,000 bushels.

Mrs. HAY'S LACK OF STYLE.—"Miss Grundy," writing from Washington, says: "Some of Mrs. Hayes's friends playfully tell her that she does not (to use their own expression) 'put on airs enough in her position.' The cottage at the Soldiers' home is the simple, unaffected, hospitable mistress of the household, deporting herself as if she was entitled to no higher station than a modest home-follower to that in a retired country place would imply. When friends call on her she accompanies them to the carriage door, and stands with uncovered head and forehead, with utter forgetting of self, or of the position of first lady in America. I imagine her husband and she interpret fashionable after a more exalted fashion than is ordinarily accepted. To them the obligation is to discharge all duties, great and small, with the greater strictness, accepting as they do the responsibility of any state of life in which they may be placed."
