TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mrs. E. G. HARDMAN, Local Editor.

Mr. Jas. A. Morgan visited Round Oak last Thursday.

Mr. Warren Winters and family have moved to Macon.

Our town is needing a school building and a church of wood. The party given at the residence of Mr. Wiley Jones recently was a most enjoyable one.

The conductors of the C. & M. are as clever and gallant gentlemen as can be found anywhere.

Mr. John Bradley of Franks, attended the oyster supper given at Mr. Lark Stewart's last Wednesday evening.

Our town is on a boom. We will have a telegraph office in a few days. Hurrah for the officers of the C. & M. R. R.

The patronage of a man who will not pay a dollar a year for his county paper is not worth advertising for.

On last Monday, Mrs. Kitzey Westbrook died at her home in Monroe county, of pneumonia, at the advanced age of 81 years.

We will take in payment for subscription to the HEADLIGHT turkeys, chickens, eggs, lard, bacon, corn, peas, oats, fodder, cotton seed, etc.

Miss Belle Barnes, of Forsyth, will have charge of a school at Monticello, this year. We gladly welcome Miss Barnes among us and trust she may have a prosperous school.

Mr. Ed Coleman, formerly of Columbus, who has been in "Merced" the business at Hadlock for the last four years and who has made a host of friends in the old county of Jones has left for a new field of labor in Mexico.

Dr. G. B. Dozier, a prominent physician of Monticello, died on last Monday very suddenly. In his death not only Monticello but Jasper county loses one of her best citizens. The HEADLIGHT sympathizes with the bereaved family.

Miss Belle Stewart, one of Jones county's most charming and accomplished young ladies, left yesterday for Mr. Vernon to resume her duties as governess in the family of Mr. T. B. Adams. We are sorry to lose Miss Belle and wish her much prosperity.

What's the use talking to us about good resolutions on the line of retrenchment? We lived last year as what the neighbors sent in and were old patched clothes. If it is possible to retrench further we will thank the suggester for the suggestion—Ex.

NOTICE

Your subscription is past due and we need the money. Please call and settle.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar for '89, which is before us, is larger and handsomer than ever, and is becoming the favorite with our people. Peach-bloss, cheeks and rosy lips, blue eyes and curly golden hair are possessed by the lovely girl whose face adorns the Calendar. She wears a dainty bonnet, and the head is "cut out" so as to look quite realistic. Hood's Calendar is easily the best of its kind and like the Sarsaparilla it represents a good thing to have in the house. The pad harmonizes with the exquisite array of color above, while the dates are easily read. Hood's Calendar may be obtained of your druggist or by sending 6 cents in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Mr. J. W. Turk spent Sunday in Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Stewart were in town Tuesday.

Bill Arp's letter in Sunday's Constitution is good.

School will open in Clinton on Monday, Jan. 21st.

Miss Annie Droe Chiles has gone to Jackson to attend school.

Miss Lena Phillips spent the Holidays with relatives in Jasper County.

Sheriff W. W. Barron spent the first part of the week in Monroe county.

Mrs. F. M. Swanson, of Monticello, spent several days in Clinton last week.

Miss Belle Stewart spent several days in Clinton last week, returning home Monday.

Mrs. R. B. Barron spent Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Round Oak, visiting Mrs. R. J. Smith.

Dr. J. F. Barron went down to Macon Monday and carried his "fine day" for which he was offered some time since $200.00.

The W. F. Missionary Society met at the residence of Col. Hardman last Monday evening and had quite an interesting meeting.

Rev. M. A. Phillips and family returned from Florida to Clinton on Friday the 4th, and left for Ringgold Wednesday morning via the C. & M. R. R.

Miss Sallie Lee and Belle Stewart, Bracie and Sallie Fan Woolfolk, Willie Anderson of Port Valley, and Maude Lester attended church in Clinton Sunday.

Jimmie, the eleven year old son of Mr. Wm. T. Mouton, was severely kicked, while driving a gin, by a mule last Saturday and the wound is quite severe.

What has become of our Exchanges? Come, Brother Editors, the Holidays are over and we must not neglect to exchange the good things of the Georgia Weekly Press.

We hear it rumored that another passenger train will be placed on the C. & M. R. R. in a short while. Hurrah for the C. & M. It is bound to work for the best interest of the people along the line.

Rev. E. R. Cook preached at the Methodist church last Sabbath from the 6th chapter and 12th verse of Timothy. He gave a splendid disquisition. Rev. M. A. Phillips preached at the Court house Sunday night.

The Clubs of the Jones County Alliance met at Gray Station last Thursday, Dec. 3rd, and had a most enthusiastic meeting with a sumptuous banquet dinner. About one hundred members were in attendance and "we have heard" that some good addresses were made.

Our "genial" Lark Stewart possesses a very fine baby boy one year old who proudly bears the name of Jefferson Davis Stewart. Some weeks ago he sent one of the little fellows photographs to the illustrations old Confederate and Lark is in receipt of a sweet letter of thanks from Miss Winnie, which he will keep until little Jeff knows how to appreciate it.

Mrs. Emma Slocumb, nee Bradley, died at her home near Bellingbrooke in Monroe county last Friday night and her remains were interred at the family burial ground near Franks on Saturday. Last May Mrs. Slocumb was left a widow and her death is peculiarly sad as three children are now left in orphanage, the youngest but three weeks old. May the hand of a merciful Providence guide her young offspring along the pathway that terminates in the haven of eternal rest. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved ones.

At the home of Mr. Nathan Morris, on Tuesday evening, the 8th inst., his youngest daughter, Miss Minnie, was united in marriage to Mr. Wade H. Lester by Rev. E. R. Cook.

Mr. Jesse C. Mercer, of East Macon, and Miss Louisa Haddock, of Haddock, were married last week. The HEADLIGHT extends congratulations to both couples.

It has been rather blustery for a few days.

Remember that the HEADLIGHT is the only paper that will reach all the people of Jones county the present year when you begin to look up a paper to place your ad's.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The Oyster Supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Lark Stewart at their hospitable home, three miles from town, on the evening of the 9th inst. was one of the most enjoyable affairs that has occurred in the community in a long while. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves to their hearts content. When it comes to entertaining young people, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart cannot be excelled. We noticed the following couples present, Dr. O. U. Gibson and lady, T. W. Duffey and lady, Frank Hardeman with Miss Belle Stewart, Jas. A. Morgan with Miss Mamie Stewart, of Port Valley, Will Lester with Miss Willie Anderson, of Port Valley, Sam Bragg with Miss Mathie, of Marshallville, Will Stewart with Miss Henry Hunt, Will Goldard with Miss Maude Lester, Jim Bragg with Miss Sallie Lee Stewart, J. W. Turk with Miss Sallie F. Woolfolk, Jim Morton with Miss Bessie Woolfolk, Eugene Smith, with Miss Irene Stewart. Mr. Stewart now lives at the old homestead of Mr. Maug Gray, for whom our town is named.

How many times have you written it 1888?

If you have made good resolution stick to them.

The public school fund for Coweta county amounted last year to $5,911. There has not been a single failure in Dalton during the past year.

A movement is on foot to establish an Inebriate Asylum for the State of Georgia, at Indian Springs.

The election for County officers last week passed off very quietly, and the Democratic nominees were all elected.

Mr. B. W. Adams, of Savannah the former Editor of the Eatonton Messenger, has again resumed the charge of that paper.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.
Mrs. E. G. HARDMAN, Local Editor.

Sunshine (a little) New Year.
The year went out in tears.
A. H. Stephens, of Macon was in Clinton, Saturday.

Mr. Holmes Johnson also at home on a Christmas leave from Atlanta.

Louis Johnson of Macon spent several days last week with Mr. W. A. Card.

Miss Maggie Chiles spent last week at home, and was in Clinton several days.

Col. S. A. Ried, of Macon, spent Thursday with Col. Hardman partridge hunting.

Have you seen the pretty office of the HEADLIGHT and don't it add to the appearance of Gray?

Mrs. J. H. Morgan and son, Henry, of Clinton are spending the week with relatives in and near Monticello.

The Stewards of the Methodist Church met in Clinton on Tuesday, to welcome and arrange for the comfort of our new pastor Rev. E. R. Cook.

Mr. Chas. Caldwell came over from Macon on Monday the guest of Frank Handman anticipating pleasant partridge hunt but the rain interfered. We trust "when skies are bright" he'll come again.

Mr. William G. Morgan died at his home in Clinton on Saturday P. M. 2nd. Mr. Morgan was in his 84th year and had long been an honored and highly respected citizen of Clinton. He leaves a companion who has journeyed through life's cares and joys with him for sixty years, and six daughters and one son. How few of the good and true of our aged are left with us!
