GENERAL PRESENTMENTS OF JONES COUNTY APRIL TERM 1888.

We the Grand Jurors sworn and empanelled for April Term 1888 Jones Superior Court, respectfully submit the following General Presentments.

Upon careful inquiry we find the Public Roads generally in good condition except a portion of the road near Robert's Station leading to Macon and to Milledgeville, all bad places to be crossways; also a portion of the road near the Sawyers place on same road in Robert's District. We call the attention of the Commissioners to it at once. We recommend $25 the amount to be paid to John Roberts in addition to the amount that was paid for the building of a Bridge across Walnut Creek on the road leading from Will Hudson to Wm. G. Kilpatrick. We also recommend that Judge Johnson have the road widened on the top of the cut going through the rocky ridge leading from Grays to Clinton. We recommend that our public roads be worked by the Chain Gang labor of the county and by Taxation. We have carefully examined and revised the Pauper list and made such changes in the appropriations as we thought fit and proper. The committees appointed to examine the J. P. and M. P. books report them neatly and correctly kept, except James Anderson's book that was accidentally destroyed by fire last fall. Also the Ordinary and Clerk of Superior Court books neatly kept and in perfect order. We find the Dockets and records of the County Judge thorough and complete which reflects great credit on the incumbent. Also the Sheriff and Tax Collectors Books and papers are correctly and neatly kept. We find on examination of the Public Building that they are in good order with some little repairs needed on top of the Court House to stop some leaks and some window glass to be put in the sashes in the upper story of the Jail.

We find the County Treasurers books properly kept and vouchers showing the amount properly expended and a cash balance on hand to day $2,841.06. Twenty-eight hundred and forty one dollars and sixty cents, for we have counted the money in a body.

Report of school Commissioners as follows. Balance on hand to date $1616. 0/10. No. of Public school 55. White 27. Colored 28. General attendance 2500. Average 1762. Monthly cost of Tuition per pupil 96. Amount of tuition paid by the state 60.

We find that G. W. F. McKay one of the board of education term expired and having been reappointed by the board of education. We recommend that he be appointed his own successor. In taking leave of his Honor, Judge Samuel Lumpkin who having presided at this term of the Court we can but express our appreciation of him as an able and efficient officer and well qualified for the position he occupied. To Solicitor Robert Whitfield we return our thanks for his courtesies to this body and for his willingness to assist us in the discharge of our duty. And we further recommend that these general presentments be published in the Jones County Headlight.

John Bradley, Foreman.

April Term 1888.

I certify the foregoing General Presentments to be a true extract from the minutes court.

R. T. Ross, Clerk.

Jones Superior Court was brought to an adjournment quite suddenly on Friday last pending the calling of the Criminal docket while quite a large number of cases were still uncalled, some of which was for the highest crimes, several being cases of murder. It appears that the following cases had not been called:

The State vs. E. P. Berry simple larceny.
The State vs. E. P. Berry, concealed weapons.
The State vs. E. P. Berry, assault and battery.

The State vs. Moses Blount, assault with intent to murder.
The State vs. Madison Blount, assault with intent to murder.

The State vs. Jessie Miller, buying sex cotton etc.
The State vs. Frank Morris, Eady Morris and Ida Morris, murder.

The State vs. R. G. Gresham, murder.
The State vs. Richard Farrar and Elijah Etheridge, larceny from house.

The State vs. Cyrus Bruin, selling crop illegally.
The State vs. W. B. Finney, assault with intent to murder.

The first of the above cases called was the State vs. Madison Blount, charged with an assault with intent to murder who was defended by R. V. Hardeman and J. C. Barron. These gentlemen had filed a plea in abatement and moved the Court to "quash the indictment" upon the ground that one of the Grand Jury finding the true bill was a member of the "County board of Education" this fact being made to satisfactorily appear to the court the indictment was quashed whereupon the Solicitor General on looking into each of the above cases ascertained that all of them were in a similar condition and the work of a week was instantly ended by quashing every indictment, however the Solicitor General who is always equal to every emergency immediately presented new indictments and the Grand Jury quickly returned over against Madison Blount for some offense and he was put on trial and his case soon submitted to a jury who returned a verdict of not guilty. Other true bills were found but the parties having disappeared the Court had no other criminal cases and instantly ordered an adjournment and thus ended our Court which was not expected to get through with this docket before Saturday night.

Methodism in Jones County From 1870 to 1888. 18 Years.
Dec. 1890, 1870, I went to Clinton and began to clerk for Mr. S. Morgan. Old "Uncle Billy" Arnold had just died. He was on the Clinton circuit about '68 or '69—perhaps longer. He was a good man and true. He is buried in Clinton Ga. In 1870, Bro C A Mitchell was sent to the Clinton circuit. In the summer of this year they had a glorious meeting at old Fort Ville, some twenty or thirty were added to the church. Many of these still abide, steadfast in the faith, and are good, consecrated men and women. Bro W. was a faithful good man, and the Lord blessed his labors. At this time, Bro. R. H. Bonner, Col. I. Hardeman and P. S. Johnson Jr. were in or near Clinton. In 1871, the Rev. J. M. Armstrong was, and an able preacher. About this time, the church at Tranquilla was established. I remember, going one Sunday with Bro A. up to this church. This trip with this good man, did me good. Young men, not dead stun preachers, they will not hurt you.

Bro. A still lives, and while he is not able to do full work, he preaches with great power and is a fine writer. In 1875, W G Hanson was on the circuit, and Rev D L Anderson was on the "mission." Bro A was a hard student, and some of the older men predicted that he would "make his mark," and he has. He is now a missionary in China and a Presiding Elder. Secret "hard study, and constant application." 1873-4. We had Bro J. Carr and his wife, His wife was well adapted to the itinerancy, and was a great help to Bro C. Some of the people thought she used to help him write his sermons. They were both fully consecrated and while his delivery was not the best, no one doubted his sincerity or earnestness.

Jan. 1874 I lost my best friend—my mother. She was about forty years old when she died, and died in the same house where she was born. Bro. Carr officiated at her burial. 1875 the work was applied by old Bro J. Knight—"Uncle Jack" as he was called by many, had been converted in Clinton about the year 1835—40 years before. The dear old man thought the Lord might see him in reforming some of the "hard cases" in and around Clinton. The church, at this time, had declined in spiritual power. Some of their best members had left and gone to Macon. Poor Bro K! He labored hard, but with little success from a human standpoint, at least. Such sermons as he did preach, and such prayers I have never heard before, or since. It does seem that they ought to have melted and moved the hardest heart. Thank God, his labor was not all in vain. One hour was moved, one "hard case" who was far away from the Saviour, resolved to do better and live for a purpose. I shall always bless the Lord that Bro K. came to Clinton. By the grace of God, I will meet him in Heaven. His end was so sad. Strange Providence! 1876-7 we had—1 say we, (I then began to feel some interest in the church and preachers) W T McMichael. His father was a missionary Baptist, and Bro Mc had pretty rough sailing to be a Methodist, much less a minister in that church. But he had a head of his own; he would study and investigate for himself. I have heard him preach some fine sermons. He was an industrious man—had to be to support his large family. He is still efficient and active, and a member of the South Ga. Conference.

1878-9-80 we had Rev. G. E. Bonner. He was a faithful worker, very popular, and during his administration of three years the church moved up, and he left it in a much better condition than he found it. 1881 we had Bro D J Wiggins. He was a graduate of Emory College and a fearless, consecrated man—not so popular as some of his predecessors. He had the courage of his convictions, and he would oppose sin and Satan, and contend earnestly for the faith. In the winter of this year, '81, he was transferred to the Little Rock, or Arkansas Conference where he is held in high esteem among his people and is a rising man. 1882 we had the Rev. A. W. Williams. He was very studious and prayerful, and he could preach well. He was a great help to us. In July of this year I was licensed to preach. 1883-4 Bro Shea was on the circuit and succeeded in getting some more of the hard cases into the church. Bro C Davis, a dear old man was on the mission and built two new churches. 1885, Bro. Smith, a man of good physique and fine face and pure heart, labored zealously among the good people of the Clinton circuit. He had some success. 1889 they had Bro Neece, a humble, good man, and one who preached a pure gospel and a high standard. He was a frail man. 1887 Bro Phillips was sent to the circuit. The year before, 1886, he did faithful work on the mission. He is back again this year, 1888, and may the Lord bless his labors. From 1870 to 1888—18 years—many changes have taken place among us, some for the better. There is like an ever rolling stream, bend all its sons away." Bros Arnold and Knight and many loved ones are watching and waiting for us. God help us to meet them. J. S. L.

—CELEBRATED BRANDS OF GUANO—

Merryman's A. D. Bones,
Merryman's GEORGIA TEST.

We can say without any fear of contradiction that Merryman's Fertilizers are to-day, as they have been for 30 years, at the very top in excellence, and the perfect satisfaction they give to planters.
While most of the popular brands on the market in past years have changed the grade of their goods by lowering their grade, Merryman has continually improved. We do not make those statements at random. We refer to any planter, in Jones and Jasper counties who have used Merryman's Guano, and will stake our reputation on this result.

RICHARD JOHNSON, County Judge.

While in Macon last Saturday we called in at the old reliable Empire Store and feasted our eyes on the mammoth stock of beautiful spring goods. We were surprised to find each good as the following at the prices annexed. Check us out from 31 to 10c Indigo blue calico from 61 to 75c. Beautiful blue of cottons from 10 to 25c. Cottonades and cassimeres at almost any price. Splendid shirts for 50c and $1.00. Their assortment of Parasols, Fans and Notions is complete. The taste and purse of the most fastidious and economical can be suited at the store of Burden, Smith and Ellis. The money clerks contended, with the establishment are courteous and the ladies all know they can be waited upon, and find what they need at the Empire Store. We have noted the above bargains, and have space to speak of the mag- nificent display of lovely silks, vel- vets, lace oversuits, ribbons, etc. These occupy no small space.

CLINTON LOCALS.

We are nee-ding rain badly.

Corn is looking fine, cotton coming up.

Did you go down to hear the won- derful Gilmore band?

Capt. Robert H. Barroo, wife and son spent last week in Clinton.

We are enjoying delicious straw- berries from our garden this week.

Dr. R. B. Barroo spent last week in Rome attending the Medical Convention.

Town very dull, since Court ad- journed. Reminds one of Gold- smith's "Deserted village."

Mrs. H. S. Graves accompanied by Mrs. Park left to-day for a visit to Mrs. Fagan in Fort Valley.

Mr. Henry Smith, of Rome is in town this week, in the interest of the late Capt. B. M. Hood, the father-in-law of Mr. Smith.

Capt. John W. Bradley Sr., and Mrs. Mercer were married Tuesday last. The HEADLIGHT tenders its best wishes to the happy pair.

Miss Ada L. Griswold has been visiting Clinton the past week. She returns to Macon Tuesday accom- panied by her hostess, Miss Lois Johnson.

Jimmie Morgan says Frank Stew- art opened his mouth so wide laugh- ing at the sociable Monday night that he actually saw the pegs in his shoe soles!

The many friends of Col. B. C. Grier will regret to learn that he has been quite sick at his home in Macon. We trust he will soon re- cover. He is a useful man.

The death of Roscoe Conkling takes from the Republican party its brightest star. He was a wonder- fully endowed politician, a man of strong prejudices but of massive in- tellect.

In the jury drawn in the case of Jerry Versus M and A R R. were Edolphus Ed. and Willie Lester, J. T. and Henry Finney. Three Lester and two Finney brothers. Rather remarkable wasn't it?

Miss Willis Glasgow was married to Mr. Ralph Bowden of Monroe county, week before last. Her father Mr. S. B. Glasgow objected to the marriage and it was a "Gretna Green" affair. However all parties have become reconciled.

Mrs. Thomas J. Woolf, of James Station spent last Friday with Mrs. Greaves. She is one of the purest specimens of "a perfect woman nobly planned" that we ever met, and we regret that she has been quite unwell for some time.

Quite an enjoyable time was spent by the young ladies and gen- tlemen of Clinton on Monday even- ing at a "sociable," complimentary to Miss Ada Griswold at the com- modious residence of Col. Harde- man. After a pleasant time spent in con- versation and repartee, refreshments were served. Miss Ada will always find a smiling welcome from Clin- tonites.

BLOUNTSTOWN ITEMS.

As I never see any mention of our little village in your paper probably a few little dots may not be amiss.

The farmers are much behind with their work, owing to the con- tinued rain of March and April, and find themselves in the middle of "Gentle Spring" and cotton- planting season, with very little work done.

Every one seems to be trying to take advantage of the pretty spell we are having, and the squeak of the cotton-planters is heard on every side.

The corn crop is up beautifully, and a good acreage has been plant- ed. It seems as if the oft reiterat- ed "admonitions of the newspaper man in regard to the raising of plen- ty of "hog and hominy" is being acted on.

On the 17th inst. quite a nice little event occurred at the residence of Mrs. J. T. Williams. The quitting of an Alburn quilt, intended for a rising young physician of this place, who has worked himself into the good graces of all the ladies around. Quite a crowd of ladies assembled, married and unmarried, and after several hours of good work with deft fingers (and tongues) they re- paired to the dining room, where an elegant table was spread, loaded down with salt-aniles, supplement- ed with an abundance of cake, ice cream, etc. After dinner the quilt was quickly finished and all agreed they had spent the most pleasant day in a long while. No gentlemen were expected and our clever host finding that he was likely to be the only male representative to face all the array of feminine beauty sud- denly remembered having urgent business in Clinton! So the ladies had the field entirely.

For fear this will land in the waste basket, I'll close immedi- ately. "Kion."
