OUR TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Grover Cleveland
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

Allen G. Thurman
OF OHIO.

FOR GOVERNOR:

John B. Gordon.

CONGRESS 6TH CONGRESSIONAL DIST

Hon James H Blount

FOR SHERIFF AND TAX COLLECTOR.

Many citizens hereby announce the names of W. W. Barron and Moses W. Smith for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Jones County. Subject to the Democratic nomination. Rally to the support of faithful officers.

E. P. Roe, the novelist, is dead.

General Sheridan died suddenly of heart disease, at Nonquet, Mass. last Saturday night.

The greatest number of veterans, of the 3rd Ga Regiment, who attended the reunion at Madison, passed up the C. & M. R. R.

From the Macon Telegraph:

In company with Col. Wiley and others, Hon. James H. Blount visited the new government building yesterday and took a look at the interior finishing. He expressed himself well pleased with the building and the progress of the work. He made a note of some improvements that could be made on the outside surroundings, which will probably receive attention on his return to Washington.

THE COMING STATE FAIR

The coming fair of Georgia State Agricultural Society to be held at Macon, commencing October 10th, promises to be the grandest ever held by this now famous Society.

President Northern, with his well known energy, encouraged by the unequalled success of last year, has not permitted interest in the affairs of the Society to flag for one moment. Not a day has passed but some work has been done, and not one point has been overlooked that would add interest or conduce to the success of this year's undertaking.

We are informed that Polk county will contend for the $150 premium for best and largest display of minerals. The county will also fill in time with an agricultural exhibit, and as the work of collecting and arranging is in the hands of Col. John O. Waddell, of Cedarturn, First Vice-President of the Society, and Maj. S. M. H. Byrd and Mr. R. T. Pool, of the Executive Committee, it is safe to say that the resources of old Polk will be well shown, and other counties may look to their laurels.

From Carroll county will do the county exhibit, besides several individual exhibits of more than ordinary merit. At a recent meeting of the farmers much enthusiasm was shown and all the details completed for collecting and arranging their exhibits.

In addition to the one cent per mile in our own and contiguous States, excursion rates from Cincinnati, Louisville, Evansville and Chicago have already been arranged, and negotiations (with every hope of success) are in progress to secure these rates from all the principal Eastern and Western cities.

Thus it will be seen that while the visitor will be entertained with one of the finest displays ever seen in the State, the exhibit will catch the eye of representative men from all parts of the country.

To enlist the offices of our ladies in any enterprise is to insure its success, and with this view we call especial attention to the departments wherein woman is supreme sovereign. Let our ladies take hold of the matter, and, our word for it, they will be fully repaid for their trouble.

Premium Lists and full information cheerfully furnished on application to Clark Grier, Secretary, Macon, Ga.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Ostriches sell for $1000 per pair in California.

John Gennadius, Greek minister to this country, asserts that the Greeks of today are as strong physically as their famous ancestors of classic times.

A young French officer is said to have invented a microphone which will record and announce the approach of a body of soldiers and give some idea as to their numbers.

A carrier pigeon left has been established at the United States training station in Newport, R. I., by private citizens, by permission of Commander Higginson, in charge of the station.

The fashion is cropping in of very short invitations to dinner. To some of the most fashionable London parties guests are invited only one or two days before.

At Halifax, recently a perfectly formed egg, shell and all, about the size of a robin's egg, was found within the yolk of a hen's egg.

Charles H. Streams, the veteran fireman of Boston, says that he has attended every circus performance given in that city for the last sixty-three years. He consumed a pint of peanuts at each performance.

A French investigator has come to the conclusion that women have a larger proportion of brown eyes than men.

Prince Bismarck has given evidence that he is still a skillful marksman. While practicing with a rifle at 120 yards recently he hit the bull's-eye every time.

Arthur Stanley, of Buffalo, proposes to go over the Falls with a parachute. When he does that there will be another Stanley missing.

Death from sunstroke is said to be almost unknown in Portland, Ore., where the recent disease of a citizen from that cause is looked upon as a peculiar occurrence.

Wm. Black, the novelist, is coming to America. Crossing the ocean will give him a chance to write another novel to be called "A Beautiful Betch."

Pennies are now eagerly demanded by the south and west, where they were once despised, and the 3,000,000 of pennies made at the Philadelphia mint last month were not equal to the want.

Isaac S. Mallen of Boston, is said to be the first colored man ever appointed by a Massachusetts Governor to a position on the district police force. He took the oath of office and was duly qualified last month.

Six pairs of twins have been born within six months in the little hamlet of North Wales Penn. This puts North Wales well up to the front as a twin-producing town.

There has just been sold in London an autograph letter of Carlyle's in which he says, "I have done little else but sleep and wash myself since I got home out of Germany."

While in mourning for Frederick III, London gayety went on in black and white robes and "morgue" dinners, and "morgue" dances, as they are called, were just as gay as though they were birds of paradise.

A dentist of alleged skill and reputation, a former president of a state dental association, was recently sued by a New Bedford man for pulling the wrong tooth and a piece of jaw with it and the jury gave the plaintiff $500 damages.

ANOTHER CONTRACT.

In What Way Will the State Attorney Wait and See.

Capt. Braden of Athens is over at Macon, N. C., and has secured a contract on the line of the Georgia Carolina and Northern railroad with instructions to push it forward toward Athens as rapidly as possible. He intends to secure a large force of hands and make things lively.

We fancy we hear the inquiry from many of our readers—"Well, of what interest to Maconites is a road way over in North Carolina."

It may be a great deal of interest, and it may not. Think of this a moment: The Georgia Carolina and Northern begins at Norfolk, Va., runs the entire length of North Carolina, will enter Georgia and come to Athens, where it may prove to be the Northern connection or outlet of the Covington & Macon. Then again it may not so prove. Wait and see. The Georgia Carolina and Northern road is a system. Work on the G. C. & N. has been progressing quietly but rapidly, and it may bear very important relations to the Covington & Macon road, and to that extent will affect Macon and her interests.

BOTH LEGS MASHED OFF.

ATHENS, Ga., Aug. 4.—About dark this evening "Sam Weller," the yard engine of the Western and Atlantic railroad, ran over Dr. John S. Wilson, a real estate agent of Athens, and mangled off his legs just below the knees. The accident occurred at the Whitehall street crossing, and Dr. Wilson was in the act of crossing the track when the engine struck him. Tonight his condition is regarded as critical. Dr. Wilson came to Athens from Augusta many years ago and for some time was a member of the drug firm of Poundstone, Wilson, Taylor & Co. The engine that ran over the doctor is called "the gun killer," and is said to have killed seven people.

CLINTON LOCALS.

week with Miss Phelia Christian.

visited relatives at Monticello last week.

tives.

companied by Mrs. Freeman of Putnam Co. were at church Sunday.

dance.

The distressing affliction "sore eyes" has made appearance among some of the families, and is to be dreaded.

Dauphin, the 13 year old son of Laz Pitts, died last Thursday from lock jaw caused by a glass cut on his foot two weeks before.

Mrs. W. W. Hiley (nee Miss Lizzie Barden) of Port Valley introduced her good husband to her old friends in Clinton last Sunday.

Mr. D. D. Holsenbeck the popular young merchant of Grays, has been sick at his brothers in town this week. We hope to soon see him well.

Little Berner Johnson has received from New Orleans a pet Parrot, whose quaint and not always elegant phrases cause much amusement.

Miss Ida Stripling has returned from a six weeks visit to her relatives in Bibb and Houston counties and was looking unusually handsome Sunday.

The members of the Goddard family had a pleasant reunion at the old home place last Saturday.
The day was delightfully spent, and a fine dinner enjoyed.

Mr. H. S. Greaves tendered his employees a nice barbecue dinner at his farm near town last Saturday.
The family went out accompanied by Mr. Jas. T. Finney and friends Mrs. Park and Mrs. Stevens of Macon.

"Protracted meeting" began Sunday and continued till Monday noon when owing to the serious indisposition of the Pastor it was discontinued until later. The weather is too warm for church going any way most people think.

Mrs. Winters, the aged grandmother of Mr. Warren Winters is a wonderfully vigorous lady for her years. She is 96 years old and would walk into town from Grays a distance of 14 mile last Sunday morning to preaching. She is bright and well preserved.

Dear HEADLIGHT—Will you give me a space in your columns for I would tell you how eager I much pleasure it is to me to peruse some one would say "cheats." ful and accomplished young lady of Byron, is visiting her brother Mr. Hardean Wagon.

Miss Lillie Farrar is visiting the bright eyes, and winning smiles of two of "our young ladies," paid ing a few days with Mr. Jesse her visit to relatives and friends in Monticello.

Fearing I am detrop I'll say "Advance." Old MAID.

We shall expect an article from "Old Maid" each week.

Mr. Enton.—A more enjoyable day is not often witnessed than was had at the residence of Mr. J. D.
Goddard on Saturday the 4th at the old Homestead of Judge James Goddard, once an honored citizen of old Jones. The gathering was a scene of the family and members of the family consisting of children and grand children numbering 66 that were present.

Friends of the family making 88 in all were present to join in with the hospitality and grand repast and jubilee of the occasion. All seemed joy and gladness from early in the morning till late in the evening.
Some of the finest watermelons that we have seen in many a day, grown by Mr. Henry Bonner, were opened up in the beginning and much enjoyed by all. When dinner was announced we had all invited under the stately oaks, there to behold the set table groaning beneath the rich and well prepared food supplied by the various members of the family for the occasion.

While upon the grounds some of the old time barbecue consisting of pig, mutton and kid was served.

Through the hospitality of Mr. J. D.
Goddard his excellent wife the occasion was a grand time. After dinner was served and every body filled then came the over flowing ice cream and merriment which added to the enjoyment of all and to see those five loving sisters all present administering to the wants and enjoyments of the children and grand-children was beautiful to behold. The family of brothers and sisters were all present but one Mr. J. F. Godard whom we did not get to see. Old Aunt Sally the old family cook of the long ago was there as peart and efficient as ever. We would be glad to have such reunions once a year to gladden our hearts. "Subscriber."

MONEY FOR FARMERS.

J. C. BARROW, Atty Law,
June 9th 3m. Clinton Ga.

From the McDuffie Journal.

The man who invented that stiff, adhesive, sticky, deceitful snare, called fly paper, was a reckless fellow, as the following accident will demonstrate to all unprejudiced minds:

A few nights ago, after the family had retired, Judge Harde-way was seated at his table writing some letters. On the floor near him was a sheet of fly paper with the danger side up. He was deeply absorbed in his correspondence, when Thomas, the family cat, who had been over to a neighbor's to interview Maria, strolled leisurely into the room and sat down on the fly paper. Thomas' person was doubtless somewhat heated from exercise, and when he arose up the treacherous fly paper came with him and stuck to him with a brotherly tenacity that foretold trouble. It had taken an immersion Thomas from his heels to the top of his tail. One glance to the floor convinced him of the necessity of prompt action. He started across the floor, and the paper went along also. Then he ran out the door, and up and down the porch, and yelled for Maria. And then he rushed back into the room, with his eyes bulged out and his hair turned the wrong way, and bumped over a table, and ran under the bed, and came out again in a hurry, and knocked over a chair and tried to climb up the wall.

They he made two jumps for the door, with that villainous paper still holding his tail straight up towards the sky in a most indecent and undignified manner, and dashed through the orchard towards Frank Dunnington's, with a tail of distress at both ends.

He came home next day very sad and exhausted, and with a wild-eyed look of supernatural sagacity and suspicion on his countenance.

He walks clear around every piece of paper he sees and won't sit down on anything. The fly paper was found plastered over a crack in the fence where Thomas had gone through in an agony of haste.

It retained scattered patches of blood and hide, and a fork of fur with the handle pointing upwards, and only lacked motion to be a good picture of Thomas when getting away from danger. But Mr.
Hardway gives it as his opinion that the fly paper is spoiled and Thomas' intellect a gloomy ruin.
