FOR SHERIFF AND TAX

Many citizens hereby announce the names of W. W. Barron and Moses W. Smith for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Jones County. Subject to the Democrat-ie nomination. Rally to the sup-port of faithful officers.

Jones County, Aug. 20th 1888. Jones County, Aug. 20th 1882.
In the usual course of life's event we attended a grand Pienic at Round Oak in this good old county, the forme of my childhood and on through many years of changes still my home and of course all things pertaining to the interest of the tepuble is dear to my heart. We shook hands with many old friends and made some new acquaintances and made some new acquaintances and now it is a pleasure to record the fact that the good people in that neighborhood are advanced and no more hospitable can be foun no more horpitable can be touch and the way they dispense the good things of this lite and manage a big crowd at a public barbecue was wonderful to behold. They deserve more than words of praise for the order that prevailed and the deco-rum with which the whole management succeeded.

Among other topics discussed we found politics and the character of the candidates for county offices in full blast-a contost for the office of full biast—a contest for the omee or Ordinary organing some attention. We found a few only who were dis-posed ngainst that able and worthy oncumbent Judge R. T. Ross. A better man never filled an office on the has given such general satisfaction and so well conducted the affairs of and so well conducted the affairs of his office as Roland T. Ross, and when we recall the dark days for our county's peril, when he was ordered out of office by a direct military order from Provisional Gov. Reget and the dark commended under for said order by that colored Republican Scalawag J. Degerenax, Ross had the courage to refuse to obey the order and to vacate except at the point of the bayone t. His appeal to that grand Democratic Stateman and Soldier Gen. Terry, who was in command, met with success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, its substance of the success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and the success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and the success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and the success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order, and the success and was sustained in his refusal to obey the inliquitous order. peal to that grand Democratic Stateman and Soldier Gen. Terry, who was in command, met with success and was sustained in his reliast to obey the iniquitous order, and thus our good old county was saved from radical rule and negro superunery. His management of superunery affairs has been smooth and her finances economically administered and we dare say no county the state only only the superunery of the state only only the superunery of the superunery o ion and has given so universal sat-isfaction. It is a matter of pride to examine the neatness and well kept condition of our country records and no where can one find a more wornowhere can one find a more wor-thy or capable officer and as evidence of all this every Grand Jury for years has given to him unstituted praise, and why there should then be any opposition is certainly strange and must be either for a want of true patriotism or lack of apprecia-tion due to all faithful and efficient tion due to all faithful and efficient public servants. We new ventue the opinion and are not alone in our views that when the day comes that his place is to be filled by a new and untried officer may the good people fear the consequences of so ill-advised a policy.

We would like to say much about Roand Oak, the beautiful grove and gashing springs, all of which is due to the energy of Prof. R. J. Smith, but the length of our communications reminds us to cut short and we will be some legal cause be shown to will be some legal cause be shown to some seminds us to one should be shown to show the shown to some length of the shown to the energy of Prof. R. DAVIS& BALKCOM.

We call attention of our readers the "Ad" of the above named firm. They are better prepared now Whitesburg on his return from the Agricultural Convention at Newnan.

Mr. Robert Coleman Sr. and son Ed., of Macon took in the Barbecees at Round Oak last Friday, Quits applier Bagging and Ties. By a nice crowd of Monticello's good strict attention to business this from has won the confidence of the farm ers. Give them a trial when you visit Macon and you will enderse what we say of them.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY. Last Thursday morning while the Central Baptist Association was in session, at Bethel church, six miles above Monticello, Jasper County, a difficulty arose between the Messrs Tyler and Ma-lone, and resulted in the killing of three of them, Messrs James Mal Sam and Eddie Tyler. It is said the affair all originated from a very trifling matter, and is much regretted by the good people of the community.

PICNICAT "SMITH'S PARK."

The universal verdict rendered by all who had the pleasure of attend-ing the picuic and barbeeue at Round ing the picule and barbecue at Rouad Oak last Friday, Aug. 17th, is "it was the very best managed and most enjoyable social reunion ever held in Jones county." The creawl has been estimated at from $30 to 1000. The grove of ave acres had reated under its welcome shade groups and circles of friends and it was difficult to puts fill restinate was difficult to put a fair estimate upon the numbers. The large crowd was altogether the most orderly we ever saw, while the managers of the mammoth pit and long table con-ducted everything quietly and with the best of order. No more con-siderate host can be found than the "lord of the manor," Hon. R. J. Smith. He was everywhere and always in the right place, with a pleasant word and a kind act for all Smith. He was everywhere and always in the right place, with a pleasant word and a kind act for all. I say body did not greet pleasant word and a kind act for all. I had we the descriptive pea of the Jesse Hunt, in his jovial way, call saveet writer, Polsom, how we were the provided with the savet with the savet with the place of Smiths Park! We would tell of the spring, for feeding the crowd were admirthen shade, the cool breezes which all and everything passed off all the white played between the without the least jar or friction." all the while played between the water, which has recently been en-closed with big granite slabs, which will long stand as a monument to the enterprising people of Round Oak. The stream of water which flows from this spring winds its way through the ravine, passing under a natural bridge and making a beau-tiful cascade oversome rocks. Most of the undergrowth had been cut and raked away, seats conven thrown across the stream, and a good platform erected for dancing. Soon after the crowd began to assemble, dancing began to the musis of a band from Macon, and was kept up all day, the dancers only long enough to partake of the spread for the crowd of 600 or 800 people. And such a dinner! It makes one's mouth water now to think of it, A walk around the pit upon which rested about twenty-five lambs and pigs on their beds of hickory poles, roasting and browning over the coals, would make a man "smell a smile," in the

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I am through taking stock and finding my business this year far excoods any previous year in amount of sales as well as profits, and as I am now getting ready for my extensive trip North, where I will vasit all the leading factories from whom I make all purchases direct. Buying, from first hands and saving jobbers profits enables me to sell a Better Chass of Goods for Less Money than any other house in the city. To do this, you well know it takes Hard Cash.

For Hard Cash will Tell the Tale.

In view of these facts, and from the fact that a generous public has heretofore very liberally patronized me. I have concluded to show my appreciation by offering them for the next thirty days Goods at a discount of 25 to 35 per cent, less than New York cost.

During this, my clearing out sales, I offer an additional inducement that will give gratis to each purchaser of $5 worth of Dry Goods purchased One Good Calico Dress, and to each purchaser of $5 worth of Clothing a fine pair of Suspenders, and for $10 worth of Clothing one of the finest Monarch Shirts, the best shirt in the world.
