OUR GEORGIA STATE FAIR —AND THE—

GEORGIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Georgia State Fair will open this year in the city of Macon on Oct. 10th, and close Oct. 19th. We are informed the exhibits will be far better this year than ever before.

Usually there have been three counties to enter for the County Display prizes. This year there are eighteen entries already. The prizes are: $1,000 for the first; $750 for the second; $500 for the third, and a registered Jersey bull, worth $100, given by the Macon Telegraph, for the fourth.

For the county making the best and largest display of its live stock a prize of $800 is offered.

To the county making the best and largest display of minerals, $150. Display of Georgia woods, $100.

The individual displays in the Agricultural Department are: $100 for the first, $50 for the second, and $25 for the third.

Never were such handsome prizes offered at an agricultural fair. Special individual prizes are offered on all articles, such as corn, cotton, peas, etc., and in all the departments, same as usual.

Our people should prepare for this great Fair at once, and send some article. You are almost sure to win a prize of some kind if you prepare a number of articles.

The Fair is held under the management of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, which was organized at Stone Mountain, Ga., in 1846, and reorganized after the war in Macon, Ga., 1869. The Agricultural Society has accomplished great good to the State, and has held many successful fairs, most of them at Macon, which city has proven to be the best place in the State for holding fairs.

The Society is composed of five members and lesser organizations throughout the State, which elect delegates to the conventions twice each year, in February and August. At the August meeting the officers are elected. The officers consist of a President, a Vice President at large, a Vice President from each Congressional district, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of three from each district, who have in charge the Fair and its management. The Vice Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer are ex-officio members of the Executive Committee.

So you will observe the Georgia State Fair is no local or sectional affair, for the advancement of any city or section, but to work up the State at large, and it is as much our Fair as it is the Fair of the city of Macon and County of Bibb. We have as much interest in this Fair as any citizens of Georgia, and we ask our citizens to put their shoulders to the wheel and help along the grand enterprise which has done so much good for our State.

Attend the Fair, make exhibits, and our section will reap the benefit.

The next Convention of the Society will be held in the city of Newman, Aug. 14th and 15th, and will be the largest ever held in the State.

The Society is rapidly growing, and now almost every county in Georgia is represented.

Send to Clark Grier, Secretary, Macon, for a Premium List.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mr. E. G. HARDEMAN, Local Editor.

The weather is yet quite warm.

Farmers are rejoicing over the recent rain.

Our boys reported a fine time in Monticello.

Our farmers about Gray can boast of some fine watermelons.

Our town has been quite dull the past week. Most every body out recreating.

Capt. R. Bonner, of Macon, is visiting his son, Mr. Henry Bonner; near Gray.

Mr. Rowe Price, of Macon, is now the guest of her brother Henry Bonner, near town.

Mr. Morris and daughter, Miss Rosa, of Macon, spent this week with the family of R. J. Turner, near town.

Several days past, Dargh Pitts, a colored boy near town, cut off his foot with a piece of glass. At first it was not thought very serious, but it has since pained him, so that it gave him the lock jaw and he is not expected to live.

Col. Harry P. Brown, who has for some time conducted in a most successful manner, the Griffin Sun, left Griffin Tuesday to accept a position on the Macon Evening News.
There is not a better news-gatherer in Georgia than Harry Brown.

We are informed that at a meeting of the C. & M. authorities yesterday at Athens, J. C. Key, Esq., of Monticello, was elected vice-president of the Covington and Macon road, vice Col. Frobel deceased.— Macon Evening News.

We clip the following from the Jasper County News:

We congratulate the C. & M. R. R. and the people of Jasper county upon the election of Major J. C. Key to the Vice Presidency of this road.
Major Key has been with this enterprise from its inception, and has been its friend at all times, at all places, and under all circumstances.
He has the confidence of our people and of those who have put their money in this enterprise, and while he is a quiet and meek man, he has the moral courage to stand to his convictions of duty and right against all opposition.

While in the Central City if you are hungry or thirsty and want a good meal, and your thirst quenched drink in at the "Brilliant" and Biscuit Smith will see that they are treated all right. Try him.

Chapman and Jones, Macon Ga., have just received a car load of well broke horses which they are offering for sale very low.
Parties who want of good horses will find it to their interest to call at Hotel De Horse and give the boys a showing.

Col. Jesse M. Hunt sent the Telegraph a sample of sweet potatoes grown by him on his farm in Jones county. They are large, fine fellows, and yesterday all he brought in were sold readily at $3 per bushel.
Col. Hunt says he beats cotton, and he expects to pay the entire expense of his cotton crop out of the proceeds of his potato patch and he will do it.—Macon Telegraph.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Miss Mullikin, of Frank's, is visiting Miss Ophelia Clinton at this place.

Mrs. E. B. Barron, of Clinton, is visiting Mrs. J. H. Kelly, of Monticello.

Master Frank A. Hervey is spending a part of his vacation with Master Gordon Hardeman.

Misses Lois Johnson and Sallie Barron are spending the week with Miss Ida Kelley of Monticello.

Mrs. Hardeman and children are still absent in Talbotton, and we regret to learn are detained by the illness of her baby Ruth. They were expected home on Tuesday. We hope to hear of the speedy recovery of the baby and safe return of herself and children.

Messrs. F. M. Stewart and F. S.
Hardeman spent last Sabbath in Monticello, returning Monday, and from a conversation we overheard were about returning to look after Mr. Jim Stewart the same day, "so they said," but we have an opinion that it was some other attraction.
Look out, Clinton girls, these young men are not riding up and down the C. & M. road without some interesting object in view.

Many of the farmers hereabouts are making ready for "fodder pulling" this is one of the old fogy notions handed down from sire to son and like cotton will continue to be gathered double its cost, causing them to grow poorer and poorer each year when one half the labor time and expense would gather a half as much of double the advantage and much more nutritious.

The primary election for Representative on yesterday brought out a full vote. The contest was between Judge Richard Johnson and Ex-Representative G. W. Comer.
From all the information we could gain from the different precincts late last night Judge Johnson has carried the county by a handsome majority. The Dem. Ex. Committee meets this morning to consolidate the returns and to declare the result.
If Judge Johnson is nominated and so declared by the committee this morning as all information indicates Jones county will be ably represented in the next General Assembly.
Now give us a good Senator from Twigg and we will be happy. We will publish full returns from the different precincts in our next issue.

The droth that has prevailed in and about Clinton for a month ended last Sunday by a timely and refreshing season, and many have taken advantage of its coming. No put in a good turnip crop. Nothing along about hog killing time fills the bill so completely as "hog-jowl and turnips," besides the turnips turkish such a fine feed for mules and it pays so well for mules flavored, golden butter. Try it, and don't forget that this is good time to commence preparing a plot of ground near the lot for seedling down an early ripe or barley patch for your milk cows during the cold months of February and March.
With enough to give your mules and horses a cutting occasionally and you have no idea how much earlier they will rid themselves in the spring and take on a fine sleek coat of hair.

Committee of Jones county.

Letter from the Editors.

Talbotton, July 31st 1888.

This is one of Georgia's old towns, but its many handsome and well kept residences with their pretty vino-covered verandas and bright flower yards, clean streets, and elegant brick business houses gives it the town a modern air. The business square has been burned out twice since the war, but since our last visit just ten years ago when we left, nothing but bricks and ashes, these have sprung up.
Phoenix like, one of the most substantial blocks in middle Georgia.
On the corner Capt S. W. Thornton has an elegant store containing a general assortment of Millinery, dry goods and groceries. In the second story is his well managed hotels. There are besides the Dry goods stores of Heath, Weeks, Por-sons, Kimbrough Bros. and Spaul, "The Alliance Store" managed by Mr. Thos. N. Beall. The grocery establishments of Hagland, Spinks, Estes, and Johnson and C. W. Kim-brough also occupy desirable standards while the drug stores of Bardwell, Lee and Thornton, despite the usual healthfulness of the Talbot climate, have patronage.

The flourishing lively state of L. A. Baldwin also has a popular stand. We are surprised to see so many private nobly "turn outs." Almost every family has one, and every morning and evening bright eyed and rosy checked lasses are seen cantering by on sleek steeds.
Talbot county has always been noted for its pretty girls. We think they are not excelled in the South.

We have been royally entertained at the elegant house of our kinsman, L. A. Baldwin, who is one of the energetic young men of this generation. His herd of twenty or more glossy Jerseys and Holsteins, with their soft eyes, bring visions of rich cream and golden butter.
Our ride behind the equine beauties, "Charlie," who was awarded the 2nd prize at the last State Fair and for whom he has refused $1000.00, was one to be remembered. Mr.
Baldwin has with credit to himself and honor to the county, held for past two years the trust worthy position of County Treasurer and will be unanimously re-elected this Fall. He is not only a favorite in his own "home town" but all over the whole country,—where ever his gentle smile is seen, a host of friends welcome him. Writing of our relative "A. A." reminds us that from his ancestral tree, there branches out 75 descendants. Of this remarkable family we have, during our visit shaken the hand of forty nine!

Of course where there are so many members, there are babies, when wearied with their infantile "rackets" we went our way to the delightful home of Col. J. J. Ball, who we had no baby at all, but a host and hostess that have no equal on this broad earth. Col. Ball is too well known in the State for any words of ours as an introduction.
Col. Ball and wife having no parental responsibilities, devote much of their time to the enjoyment of the young people, and while witnessing their charming ministrations last Friday evening we ceased to wonder why they were so popular.
On that evening they tendered a complimentary Reception to "our Maude." There were ten couples in attendance and a delightful evening spent in sociable converse, with a welcome send-off of salads, creams, and cakes.

Our visit ends on Tuesday, and on Wednesday we take the train here for Baxtrick where we connect with the Macon bound train.
We leave in Talbot our only living relatives on the Smith side, Mr. E. B. Smith and Mrs. Samuel Baldwin. The former was 82 years old the day we reached Talbotton.
E. G. H.

Tom Woolfolk has taken the pauper oath so his case can go to the supreme court without the payment of costs.

The readers of the HEADLIGHT will not fail to see the new advertisement of Ph. M. Berg, Macon Ga.
He carries a well selected stock of dry goods and sells them at rock bottom prices. When visiting the city call on him and be convinced that he will give you a bargain.

Mrs. H. S. Gould, of Macon, Ca. is among the guests of the Hotel Lanier, in Macon for a few days.

Capt. J. H. Winters, one of the Policemen of Macon, accompanied by his wife, came up last Saturday and will spend several days with relatives and friends in and around Frank's and Gray's.

Athens Banner; Col. E. C.
Macon's many friends were glad to see him in town last night. They regret his brief stay in Athens.
Who knows Col. Macon has learned to love him.

The motion for a new trial in the case of The State vs. Thos. G. Woolfolk has been overruled by Judge Gustin. The case now goes to the Supreme Court, but will probably not be passed upon by that tribunal before November or December.

GEORGIA TECHNOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

The exercises of this school will open the first of October under an able head in the person of Dr. Hopkins. And in this connection we call attention to the advertisement of Mr. A.
H. S. McKay, County School Commissioner, as he found in this issue. Those desiring to enter this school from Jones county must apply to Mr. McKay to be examined on Saturday, the first day of September next.

We find the following in the Athens Banner-Watchman:

Monday evening a reporter of the Banner-Watchman saw a party of gentlemen steering towards the city clerk's office, and shouldering their pencils this same reporter started to see why the said gentlemen were there. He found Col. E. C.
Macon there, accompanied by Maj. John C. Key, of Monticello; A. C. Palmer, of Macon; H. M.
Herman, of New York; and Col.
N. E. Harris, of Macon.

These gentlemen came over on a pleasure trip, as well as to make acquaintances. These gentlemen visited the road near the cemetery, and were well pleased with the work being done.
Mr. Harris is a graduate of the State University, and met many of the friends he knew when in college there. The party will leave this morning for Macon.

Col. E. C. Macon, Hon. N. E.
Harris, attorney, and one or two other representatives of the Covington & Macon road, were in Athens yesterday and went before the city council and asked that body for the right of way through the streets.
One or two members of the board were opposed to immediate action and asked for a postponement to some future day. Mr. Harris, attorney for the road, said that he could see no reason for a postponement, and thought the city should bear a portion of the damage should any exist after the road was completed.

Mayor Hodgson followed Mr.
Harris in a few remarks and coincided with him in his views by saying that the business brought to Athens by the building of the road would greatly offset suits for damages. Council then went into secret session, and when the body recon-vened an ordinance was passed giving the Covington & Macon the right of way through the streets.—
