OUR TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.
Grover Cleveland
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
Allen G. Thurman
OF OHIO.

FOR GOVERNOR:
John B. Gordon.

FOR CONGRESS 6TH DISTRICT.
Hon James H Blount

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Col. B. W. Frobel, Vice President and Gen'l Manager of the Covington and Macon rail road died on Thursday last July 12th at his room in the Pavilion hotel, after an illness of several weeks, of Typhoid Dysentery. He had the attention of our best local medical skill besides being visited by Dr. Woodward of Atlanta, his family physician and Dr. Moffatt of Macon. His devoted wife and daughters were constantly at his bedside ministering to his every want. Besides, kind and loving friends stood ready to do all in their power to stay the hand of death and to render the last hours of the victim free from pain and suffering.

Col. Frobel was born in Fairfax county Va., in 1828. In 1844 at the age of sixteen he entered the U. S. navy as midshipman, and was sent on a special messenger and bearer of important dispatches to the commander of the U. S. Army in Mexico. After a service of three years he resigned the office of Lieutenant, to which he had been promoted, and entered the university of Virginia. After graduating from this institution he engaged in railroad engineering and was employed for a time on the survey of the Northern Pacific and other important national works. Again entering the navy he served with distinction in the Uruguay and Paraguay expedition to South America. At the call of the South and his native state he again resigned from the U. S. Navy and cast his fortunes with his own people.

Col. Frobel was considered a superior civil and military engineer and was entrusted with many important defenses during the war, notably there at Savannah. Besides he held many offices of honor and rank. Being at the close of the war chief of Artillery for Gen. Longstreets corps.

After the war he was appointed engineer and Superintendent of Public Works by the Georgia Legislature. While holding this position he had charge of the remodeling of the old capital and the grounds at Milledgeville. At this time he married Miss Mamie Compton, the accomplished daughter of one of Jasper counties honored citizens, Mr. P. M. Compton.

He was afterwards appointed engineer in the U. S. Service to look after internal improvements in the south. He surveyed the route for a canal from the Tennessee river to the Atlantic at Savannah. Besides this he was foremost in many engineering enterprises which had for their object the advancement of the material resources of the south and of Georgia. His last projects was the building of the Covington and Macon rail road, which will long remain an imperishable monument to his skill and ability, and it is particularly sad that he should not be permitted to see the complete fulfillment of this, his pet scheme and to have his heart gladdened by the commendations and congratulations of his many friends.

In this like Moses he was permitted to only view the Promised Land, Not to occupy it. In all the relations of life, Col.

Frobel bore the reputation of a high toned, honorable christian gentleman. As such his memory will be cherished by our whole people. Monticello is proud that it was her sad privilege to have him rest from his labors among her people whom he had so greatly benefited. A unanimous and heartfelt sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and daughters in this their hour of affliction.—Jasper County News.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mr. E. G. HARDEMAN, Local Editor.

What has become of our correspondents?

The District conference meets at Monticello next week.

We hope the county will be well represented at the mass meeting at Clinton today.

Mesdames Mollie Clark and Georgia Clark, from near Haddock's, have been on a visit to relatives at Monticello this week.

Mr. B. A. Moore, of Jones County, shipped and delivered to W. A.
Kelly & Bro's of this place the 17th inst one thousand and twenty watermelons ranging from 15 to 50 lbs each.—Jasper County News.

Ye Jones County bears off the bravest and is furnishing her neighbors with watermelons. Mr.
B. A. Moore is one of our most progressive farmers and we are justly proud of him.

Capt. John Keely, well known all over the State as one of Atlanta's most successful and valuable citizens, died at his home the 18th inst, of blood poison caused from a wound received during the war.

During the vacation of Mercer University, Rev. J. A. Pinkston will gladly assist in protracted meetings in Jones, and preach at desolate places, if there be any, and will respond to the Brethren, if notified. We hope the good people will select some place and have services once a month at different portions of the county.

Prof. W. D. Williams principal of the Georgia State Blind Academy located at Macon was president of the bi-ennial meeting of the American Association of Institutions of the Blind which was held at the Macquand School for the Blind in Baltimore last week.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Col. Lee Jordan and Mrs. Sorrell of Macon, were at the Picnic.
Miss Belle Stewart is spending this week in town with friends.

Mrs. Ben Stewart and three boys, of Macon, were at the Picnic.

Miss Nipais Clay, of Macon, was at Grays Saturday.

Farmers around Clinton are needing rain badly, and complaining accordingly.

Misses Ada and Lottie Griswold spent several days in town this week.

Messrs J. W. and Charles Turk of Monroe Co., spent Saturday night in town.

We see that the name of the village of McVillie, Ga., has been changed to that of Scotland.

Mr. Thomas Hardeman and wife, of Davisboro, Ga., are visiting Dr. J.
Hardeman of Haddock's.

Miss Zetta Worsham, the popular dissiper of the mail matter in the village, went down to James Station Tuesday.

Robt. B. Brown, of Browns Creas-sing, M. & A. R., spent the Sabbath at Clinton.

What is nicer these mornings than a good nap before 6 o'clock and a fresh sweet canteloupe for breakfast afterwards.

Miss Annie L. Holmes of Vineville came out to the Picnic and Social and spent Sunday in Clinton as the guest of Miss E. Chiles.

Rev. Mr. Pinkston a student of Theology at Mercer University preached at the M. E. church in Clinton last Sunday. Quite a presentable crowd was in attendance.

Dr. G. Webb of Monticello attended the social at Col. Hardemans Saturday evening and remained in Clinton until Sunday P. M.

Mr. Robt L. Finney returned to New Orleans on the 15th. Bob is a social fellow and his departure has caused the Clinton girls "full many a sigh." He will be missed especially by them in the croquet ground.

Rev. E. W. Sammons and family accompanied by Miss Mary Shaw, of Edgewood County, S. C. are visiting the Grand, and Mother, of Mrs.
Sammons of Putnam Co. We extend a cordial welcome to our, once Jones County citizens.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Wm H. Barden who with her family was at her old home near Franks, while out driving last Friday at ternoon met with quite a painful accident Dr. R. B. Barron was hastily summoned and did all in his power to alleviate her sufferings.
She was taken to her home in Macon on Sunday unable to walk.

Mr. Thos. L. Funderburke, who has been for past year at the store of W. H. Holsenbeck in Clinton and who by his uniform good conduct and urbane manners made himself popular, left on Tuesday the 17th, to enter the old reliable hardware establishment of Johnson & Lane, of Macon. We commend Mr. F. and wish him success in his new business connection.

The Editors with "one half of the Eight" interesting young Hardemans left on Wednesday for several weeks visit to relatives in Talbot County. Trust she will not be missed from the Headlight and that her place will be filled by one more competent. The old adage "a rolling stone gathers no moss" shall not be verified as she hopes to return reconverted in health spirits with more flesh "on dist" and all the better prepared to interest the much appreciated readers of the Headlight.

The Social Saturday night was quite a delightful affair. The young and old were in full evening dress and were charming. Miss Ina Kelly of Monticello who is this week the guest of Miss Sallie Barrow, was particularly noticeable, and her sweet face and nice manners won golden "meeds of praise." Misses Nannie King and Susie Phillips of Jasper were also present.

One could never guess the bright young ladies and lively gallants had been all day at a Picnic, while looking in on them.

The picnic at Gray on Saturday July 14th, was the largest ever enjoyed in the county. Why, just "Everybody" was there!

The crowd was sociable, well dressed, orderly and lively. A string band discoursed good music all day, and the followers of Tepescore indulged in their wonted pleasure. About one o'clock some one called out: "Dinner!" and there was a rush like unto that of a mob, eager for the fray. Forty browned and highly seasoned quarters of barbequed pig, lamb and kid were soon carved and their juicy "effluence," side dished by home made and bakers bread, old fashion chicken pie, fried chicken, etc., etc., went to make the hungry soul happy. In an incredibly short time, why, there wasn't any thing to be found, that had just filled the well laden table except a quantity of delightful ice cold lemonade that had been donated by the ever generous and thoughtful Judge Richard Johnson. This beverage which satisfies the thirsty and always comes in just when most wanted, had been well made by Messrs. F. M. Stewart and Frank Hardeman.

Capt. F. S. Johnson, who with his wife had come up with many others from Macon, brought a wagon load of watermelons which were presented to the appreciative crowd.
We cannot mention the crowd of visitors and we saw so many familiar and so many strange faces that our eyes and head haven't got tranquilized yet.

The Man who objects to his wife's wearing a Mother Hubbard, during such weather as this, is a bear.
If we were a woman—and we're glad we ain't—we'd wear the thinnest, loosest Mother Hubbard we could get, and if a looser, cooler garment with bay windows in it should be invented by some friend of her sex, we'd wear that, even if it did make the old bear growl.

ITEMS FROM WAYSIDE.

To divert my thoughts from my unhappy conditions (a bachelor) I will devote a few moments to the Headlight.

We were blessed with a fine season on this afternoon, which was highly appreciated and much needed.
This will ensure the making of the corn crop.

Mr. J. A. Stewart has fifteen acres in corn which will yield him forty or fifty bushels per acre.

Mr. T. L. Funderburk of Clinton gave us a pop call to day. We are glad to know that Tommie has acquired a position with Messrs. Johnson & Lane of Macon.

Quite a number went down to the picnic at Gray on Saturday.

Mr. James M. Harkins of the C.
& M. is visiting relatives and friends at Five Points and Dames Ferry.

A trio of young men made a raid on the water-melon patch of Mr.
J. A. Stewart this afternoon, (Gas being absent). Securing a melon such they began to plod their way home, but soon tired of their load, halting under a convenient shade tree they soon dispatched of them, and selling the remaining two to a traveller, and turned the proceeds over to the treasurer of the Wayside Farmers Alliance.

Mr. W. L. Comer is visiting in the neighborhood. "JAKE"

The Salvation army are having great success in India according to all reports. They are said to live on 20 cents a week per capita, and submit to great privations uncomplainingly, and it is also said that Commissioner Tucker, their leader, recently resigned a government place worth $4,000 a year to join the army.
