THOS. R. PENN. : : Publisher.

Gray Georgia, Saturday, May 25th.

The Travelers Protective Association will hold their annual meeting in Augusta in May 17 and 18th.

The Georgia Press Association will meet at Canton next Thursday. The Headlight should be represented.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSON has been elected an honorary member of E. D. Baker, Post No. 8, Grand Army of the Republic, at Philadelphia. Gen. Johnson is the only ex-Confederate who has ever been received into the ranks of a Grand Army Post.

Messrs. Brown, Herman, Sweetser and other Northern friends and supporters of the C. & M. R. Railway in Macon on the first inst. with Col. Machen. It seems the more these gentlemen see of our section, the C. & M. R. prospects and possibilities, the more they become interested and enthused over the enterprise.

The Georgia Democratic convention will meet next Wednesday. There is every reason to believe that its session will be harmonious and pleasant. The people have spoken all over the State, and their hearty endorsement of President Cleveland's administration and of the tariff views expressed in his bold message to Congress, clearly indicates the prevailing sentiment in the Democratic party of Georgia.—Telegraph.

The refusal of Governor Gordon to turn over the $5,000 state appropriation to the Atlanta University on account of its failure to comply with the anti-secession resolution passed by the legislature, is being used in the north as capital for the university. The Boston Advertiser announces editorially "that this seat and the work of liberal education in the north has been seriously crippled by the withdrawal of the state appropriation, because it refused to fall back to the color line in education." The Advertiser further calls the attention of the public to the presence of Professor Bunsford in Boston, and urges that liberal writs upon be placed in his hands "to carry on the momentous struggle—Constitution."

One of the interesting figures of New York this winter has been Miss Hampton, of South Carolina, a daughter of Gen. Wade Hampton, who is now assistant in the surgical ward of one of the hospitals. Miss Hampton has taken a very thorough course of training as a professional nurse, and it is her plan, when her studies have been completed, to open a school for the instruction of nurses in the South, and supply, if possible, a new field for work for Southern women. She is a slender woman, with a little figure, dark hair and a serene but healthy complexion. She is entirely devoted to her work, an enthusiast in it, and a woman of exceptional endowments.—Savannah News.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary L. Bradley, (nee Green) was born Aug. 29th 1855 and died at Bradley Station, Jones county, April 4th, 1889. She was the daughter of John R. and Mary A. Green of Jasper county. A more dutiful daughter never lived. Her aged father, said at the funeral that she never gave him a moments trouble. She was always cheerful, modest and happy, possessing a mild and pleasant disposition, and always had a kind and helpful word for every one and especially for those nearest and dearest to her. She was happily married to Mr. John Bradley of Jones county the 18th of July, 1875; to him she was a help indeed; he said to the writer after the funeral service, "she was all that a man could expect to find in a wife, she never gave me a cross word, and always met me with a smile and a kind word, she was untiring in her devotion to her children and home." She was happily converted to Christ in the year 1874 at New Hope Church in Jasper county. Her religion was not of that demonstrative character which many possess, but quiet and unobtrusive. Her christian life was steady and bright. She always held forth the word of life in a way that all who knew her took knowledge of her that she had been with Jesus. The waters of her religion widened their borders and deepened their channels as they hastened on to the sea of immortal joy. It is not strange therefore that death found her ready. For her to live was Christ, and to die was gain. When the summons came she called her loved ones, one by one, and gave them a message of love and bade them farewell, then taking on new life and strength as if for a twelve journey, she shouted glory, glory, and swept down the azure dome to the gates of day, and left her loved ones gazing after her.

An honest and economical administration.

Freedom of the election franchise. He has also in his possession one cross cut saw, one broad axe, and one drawing knife that have been in use 36 years and all in good order. He bought of Swanson & Durham when they kept in the yellow store in Monticello. A mantel clock bought at the same time, now in good running order, never been repaired, and has never been out of running order as much as a week. One pocket rule he has carried in his pants pocket daily for over 13 years. Lastly, his old harness horse Charles, 25 years old fat and active as a colt, and can do as much plowing as any $300 mule.—Jasper County News.

A Louisville man called on a hotel keeper in Italy county, Ky., the other day and paid 75c. for meals he had eaten fifteen years ago.

At Townsend, Erie county, New York, stands an oak tree 40 years old, and in a good healthy condition. There are eight small trees growing from the branches, two standing alone and the other six together.

A Detroit newspaper is responsible for the statement that Wiggins, the mist weather prophet, has made no predictions of late because the Canadian government told him to shut up or leave its employ. This statement will give rise in this country to a more friendly feeling toward the Canadian government than some have existed heretofore.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A waterspout, it is related, was seen off the Massachusetts coast, near Nahant, recently.

The druggists of Iowa City have agreed not to take out licenses to sell liquor under the new pharmacy law.

Planters Read

We have this day contracted with Messrs. JOHN MERRYMAN & Co to sell, at all stations on the C. & M. R. Railroad, their
—CELEBRATED BRANDS OF GUANO—

Merryman's A. D. Bones,
Merryman's GEORGIA TEST.

We can say without any fear of contradiction that Merryman's Fertilizers are today, as they have been for 39 years, at the very top in excellence, and the perfect satisfaction they give to planters.

While most of the popular brands on the market in past years have changed the grade of their goods by lowering their grade, Merryman has continually improved. We do not make these statements at random. We refer to any planter in Jones and Jasper counties who have used Merryman's Guano, and will stake our reputation on the result.

—WE ALSO HANDLE—

SOLUBLE BONE DUST
for composting, which is the highest grade acid on the market. We also handle cheap phosphate; also kainit, and are agents for the Macon O. & Fertilizer Company for the sale of their Cotton Seed Meal.
We can give low prices on these goods, and are ready to deliver.
Our Agents will call on the good people of Jones and Jasper counties, and we trust will receive their orders.

In Memoriam.

The death of Mrs. Joe Merce, which occurred at her home near Brady's Station on Tuesday April 3rd, brought sorrow to the hearts of a host of friends.

Turning back a few years only, we remember her in all the flush of her girlish and youthful beauty. Life seemed to stretch before her like a beautiful dream.

Possessing much personal magnetism and most vivacious manners. She was the center of an admiring circle of friends.

With a kind and artless nature, full of cheerfulness that came from a heart free from guile, what else could she have been than the light of the household? A mothers joy, a brothers pride, a husbands most devoted wife. Through five long months of intense suffering she earned the utmost patience, accepting all with a resignation which comes only from on high. Many months ago she expressed her faith in a Saviour's love, and was fully prepared for the summons when it came. Her sufferings are ended; her cross laid down and we know she is at rest.

To her heart broken mother, husband and brothers, we tender our sincerest condolences, commending them to One who alone can heal all heart's aches. A Friend.

OBITUARY.

I had waited for some other hand to write capable than mine to pen a suitable obituary of our dear cousin Charles T. Griswold, who died in Valdosta April 9th 1888. I can not refrain from some words commendative of his many noble traits of character. He was in the manly bloom of life, 37 years of age when called to leave the devoted wife and three sons, and yet he expressed his willingness to obey the sad summons but what a void in the affectionate his "going forth to meet the Bridegroom" has been created. Fifteen years ago he married Miss Annie E. Gibson at the home of her grandfather Capt. Peyton T. Pitts in Jones county and I never knew a more congenial matrimonial alliance. He was eminently endowed with just such qualities as were required to make a husband and father. Indulgent, firm, yet gentle, intellectual and considerate. His perceptions of a happy home were of the most refined order. No pleasure greater to him than to sit with the loved ones and with reading and comments instruct and interest them. About five years ago a lucrative position being offered him in Texas, with bright hopes he moved to that state with his family, where in a business point of view he was quite successful, but a year ago his health began to fail, and in February last he realized that he could no longer labor for those he so much loved and he wished to "come home to Georgia to die." Just two months (to the day) after reaching his native city Macon his remains were brought and laid to rest by the side of his parents among the sighing cedars in Rose Hill Cemetery. With his brothers so devoted, many loving friends grieve that we no more look upon his pleasant face, nor hear his happy tones. It is a grand thing to reflect upon the lives of such men.

"Who labored in their sphere as men who live In the delight that work alone can give: Peace be to them; eternal peace and rest And the fulfillment of that great bequest."

"You have been faithful over a few things"

And we shall long hold in sweet remembrance the virtues of Charles T. Griswold. F. G. H.

The Madison Advertiser has come out with a game looking roster, of no small variety, crowing over the completion of the C. & M. to that place. Under it are the words, "Grow, Macon, Grow."

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

This admirable weekly for the youth of this great land is now well established, and has an increasingly large and well-deserved patronage.

It is well worthy the examination of parents who wish to provide their children with a large amount of carefully-prepared miscellany, at once entertaining, instructive and clean.

It is edited with ability, and shows a quick sympathy with the pleasures of the young people, and a clear out look for their welfare.

The Georgia Press Association will meet at Canton next Thursday. The Headlight should be represented.

Gen. Joseph H. Johnston has been elected an honorary member of E. D. Baker, Post No. 8, Grand Army of the Republic, at Philadelphia. Gen. Johnston is the only ex-Confederate who has ever been received into the ranks of a Grand Army Post.

Messrs. Brown, Heron, Sweetser and other Northern friends and supporters of the C. & M. R. R. were in Macon on the first inst. with Col. Maehen. It seems the more these gentlemen see of our section, the C. & M. R. prospects and possibilities, the more they become interested and enthused over the enterprise.

The Georgia Democratic convention will meet next Wednesday. There is every reason to believe that its session will be harmonious and pleasant. The people have spoken all over the State, and their hearty endorsement of President Cleveland's administration and of the tariff views expressed in his bold message to Congress, clearly indicates the prevailing sentiment in the Democratic party of Georgia.—Telegraph.

The refusal of Governor Gordon to turn over the $2,000,000 appropriation to the Atlanta University on account of its failure to comply with the anti ex-education resolution passed by the legislature, is being used in the north as capital for the university. The Boston Advertiser announces editorially "that this sentiment and a lack of liberal education in the south has been seriously crippled by the withdrawal of the state appropriation, because it refused to fall back to the color line in education." The Advertiser further calls the attention of the public to the presence of Professor Bunsasted in Boston, and urges that liberal subscription on his placed in his hands "to carry on the momentous struggle—Constitution."

One of the interesting figures of New York this winter has been Miss Hampton, of South Carolina, a daughter of Gen. Wade Hampton, who is now assistant in the surgical ward of one of the hospitals. Miss Hampton has taken a very thorough course of training as a professional nurse, and it is her plan, when her studies have been completed, to open a school for the instruction of nurses in the South, and supply, if possible a new field for work for Southern women. She is a slender woman, with a little figure, dark hair and a clear, bright, sparkling complexion. She is entirely devoted to her work, an enthusiast in it, and a woman of exceptional endowments.—Savannah News.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary L. Bradley, (nee Green) was born Aug. 29th, 1855 and died at Bradley Station, Jones county, April 4th, 1888. She was the daughter of John L. and Mary A. Green of Jasper county. A most dutiful daughter, never lived. Her aged father said that the funeral that she never gave him a moments trouble. She was always cheerful, modest and happy, possessing a mild and pleasant disposition, and always had a kind and helpful word for every one, especially for those nearest and dearest to her. She was happily married to Mr. John Bradley of Jones county the 18th of July, 1878; to him she was a help indeed. He said to the writer after the funeral service, "she was all that a man could expect to find in a wife, she never gave me a cross word, and always met me with a smile and a kind word, she was faithful in her devotion to her children and home." She was happily converted to Christ in the year 1874, New Hope Church in Jasper county. Her religion was not at that demonstrative character which many possess, but quiet and unobtrusive. Her Christian life was steady and bright. She always held forth the word of life in a way that all who knew her took knowledge of her that she had been with Jesus. The waters of her religion widened their borders and deepened their channels as they hastened on to the sea of immortal joy. It is not strange therefore that death found ready. For her to live with Christ, and to die with him. "When the summons came she called her loved ones, one by one, and gave them a message of love and bade them farewell, then taking on new life and strength as if for a life's journey, she shouted glory, glory, and swept through the azure dome to the gates of day, and left her loved ones gazing after her.

O. A. THROWER.
OLD RELICS.

Mr. Robert F. Ezelle, of Smithboro, has in his possession a silver spoon that has been in his wife's family (Howards) for more than 100 years. A badge of 1844 obtained in Madison Ga. at the Madison convention with the following printed on its face.

Madison Convention.
Whig Nominations.
HENRY CLAY.
THEODORE FREELINGHUYSEN.
Whig Principles.
One Presidential Term.
A sound national currency.
A revenue tariff with fair protection to American industry.
Just restraints on the executive power.
Distribution of the proceeds of the public lands.
An honest and economical administration.
Freedom of the election franchise.
He has also in his possession one cross cut saw, one broad axe, and one drawing knife that have been in use 36 years and all in good order, bought of Swanson & Durham when they kept in the yellow store in Monticello. A mantle clock bought at the same time, now in good running order, never been repaired, and has never been out of running order as much as a week. One pocket rule he has carried in his pants pocket daily for over 13 years. Lastly, his old harness horse Charles, 25 years old, fat and active as a colt, and can do as much plowing as any $300 mule.—Jasper County News.

Planters Read.

We have this day contracted with Messrs. JOHN MERRYMAN & Co to sell, at all stations on the C. & M. Railroad, their

—CELEBRATED BRAND OF GUANO—

Merryman's A. D. Bones,

Merryman's GEORGIA TEST.

We can say without any fear of contradiction that Merryman's fertilizers are today, as they have been for 30 years, at the very top in excellence, and the perfect satisfaction they give to planters.

While most of the popular brands on the market in past years have changed the grade of their goods by lowering their grade, Merryman has continually improved. We do not make these statements at random. We refer to any planter in Jones and Jasper counties who have used Merryman's Guano, and will stake our reputation on this result.

—WE ALSO HANDLE—

ridge," also widening the public road at that place.

Mrs. Mary Bryant who has been spending several months in Jones county with relatives and her many friends returned to her home in Wilkes county Wednesday.

A special train passed up the road
last Thursday enroute to Madison.
Col. E. C. Machen, accompanied by a number of prominent officials of the road, and a goodly number of Maconites composed the crowd.

We note with pleasure that the name of our young friend, R. N.
Hardeman, appears among the number of those who were awarded Junior Speakers Places at approaching commencement. They will contend for a medal to be awarded on merit in declamation and composition.

NOTICE.

In Memoriam.

The death of Mrs. Joe Mercer, which occurred at her home near Bradley's Station on Tuesday April 3rd, brought sorrow to the hearts of a host of friends.

Turning back a few years only,
we remember her in all the flush
of her girlish and youthful beauty.
Life seemed to stretch before her
like a beautiful dream.

Possessing much personal magnetism and most vivacious manners,
she was the center of an admiring circle of friends.

With a kind and artless nature,
full of cheerfulness that came from a heart free from guile, what else could she have been than the light of the household? A mother's love, a brother's pride, a husband's admiration, devoted wife. Through five long months of intense suffering she endured the utmost patience, accepting all with a resignation which comes only from on high. Many months ago she expressed her faith in a Savior's love, and was fully prepared for the summons when it came. Her sufferings are ended;
her cross laid down and we know
she is at rest.

To her heart broken mother, husband and brothers, we tender our sincerest condolences, commending them to One who alone can heal all heart aches. A Friend.

OBITUARY.

I had waited for some other hand
more capable than mine to pen a suitable obituary of our dear cousin Charles P. Griswold, who died in Valdosta April 9th 1888. I can not restrain from some words of commemorative of his many noble traits of character. He was in the manly bloom of life, 37 years of age, when called to leave the devoted wife and three sons, and yet he expressed his willingness to obey the sad summons
but with a void in the affectionate home his going tried to meet the Bridegroom's has been created.

Fifteen years ago he married Miss Annie E. Gibson at the home of her grandfather Capt. Peyton T. Pitts in Jones county and I never knew a more congenial marital alliance. He was eminently endowed with just such qualities as were required to make a husband and father. In-diligent, firm, yet gentle, intellectual and considerate. His perceptions of a happy home were of the most refined order. No pleasure greater to him than to sit with the loved ones, with reading and interest them.
About five years ago a lucrative position being offered him in Texas, with bright hopes he moved to that state with his family, where in a business point of view he was quite successful, but a year or so his health began to fail, and in February last he realized that he could no longer labor for those he so much loved and he wished to "come home to Georgia to die." Just two months (to the day) after reaching his native city Macon his remains were brought and laid to rest by the side of his parents among the soothing cedars in Rose Hill Cemetery.

With his brothers so devoted, many loving friends grieve that we no more look upon his pleasant face, nor hear his happy tones. It is a great thing to reflect upon the lives of men.

"Who labored in their sphere as men who live
In the delight that work alone can give."

Peace be to them; eternal peace
and rest
And the fulfillment of that great bequest.

"Ye have been faithful over a few things"
And we shall hold in sweet remembrance the virtues of Charles E. Griswold. E. G. H.

Golden Days.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

This admirable weekly for the youth of this great land is now well established, and has an increasingly large and well-deserved patronage.

It is well worthy the examination of parents who wish to provide their children with large amount of carefully-prepared miscellany, at once entertaining, instructive and clean.
It is edited with ability, and shows a quick sympathy with the pleasures of the young people, and a clear out look for their welfare.
