TRADE AS A SCIENCE.

Of late years the art of Artist Material, has developed into what might be termed a Science. The merchant to be successful, must possess a certain talent the more success he achieves.

CHAS. O. HOLT, BOOKSELLER, STATIONER, ARTIST'S MATERIALS, NOVELTIES, PICTURE FRAME MANUFACTURER 233 Second St., and Cotton Ave., Triangular Block, Macon, Ga.

By strict attention to the wants of the trade, has built up a most successful business, and now ranks as one of the most reliable houses in the City. Careful and judicious buying keeps the assortments in the various departments complete with the most reasonable goods. Call and see him when in the city.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Election passed quietly.

Mr. Irving Sawyer was in town Monday.

Judge Johnson left for Atlanta Tuesday.

Y. Edw. Jones has been quite sick since our last issue.

Certainly the Fair-goers enjoyed the beautiful weather.

Misses Jane Thigpen and Honnie McArthur visited Clinton Friday.

Thanks to the "editor" who gave the Headlight its first birth day greeting.

Our esteemed Haddock correspondent, (who let's his pen fly) was in Clinton Monday.

Mrs. Rose, Mrs. R. B. Barron, Mrs. Donald Ross, Miss Harriet Morgan and others are attending the Fair.

Last Sunday was regular preaching day in Clinton. Rev. M. A. Phillips gave a very fine discourse.

As Col. J. C. Barron failed to get his Court was held Monday. Although about ten cases were set for trial.

We acknowledge a ticket to the great Augusta Exposition, and knowing it will be a success would like to visit its many novelties.

We regret that Mr. Lark Stewart is and has been for nearly two weeks, quite sick with fever at his home near Jones. He is attended by Dr. S. C. Parley.

The land and home place of the late James H. Barnes were sold at public auction in Clinton Tuesday.

Different lots were sold to Messrs. Clarke Rodgers and Edmondson, Mr. Mullenkin bought the home place, Mrs. Mariott Barnes Edmondson and husband of Naxar attended the sale.

Macon sustained her first big fire (since the paid department went into effect) on Monday night. The large and well filled stores of H. D. Adams, N. S. VanSycle and Tindall, T. C. Burke and C. H. Taylor were totally destroyed with contents. Total loss $138,000. Insurance $72,000.

While in Macon on the 1st, we called in to inspect the handsome new office building of the newly opened establishment of Jno. H. Ellis & Co. The building is new, and the array of bright, rich, serviceable and cheap dress goods is enough to dazzle one. We made "quite a bill" and advised our Jones County friends to be sure and call at Ellis' Cherry street, when in Macon, where they will find things to please the eye and suit the purse.

THE ELECTION IN GEORGIA.

The election in Georgia passed off very quiet, and a fair vote was polled. It will be a relief to those for all the counties are heard from, but it can be safely said that the democratic plurality will not be far from 25,000. All the democratic candidates for congress were elected by good majorities, with the exception of Mr. J. D. Stewart, of the Fifth district, whose majority it is thought, will be small. The democrats of Fulton county, in which Atlanta is located, showed a good deal of apathy, and permitted the republicans to carry the county.

What has become of all the correspondents? They have gone into winter quarters rather early, have they not? Expect though that it is the scarcity of items of news.

LOUISIANA CUSTOM.

CELEBRATING THE CUTTING OF THE FIRST STALK OF CANE.

Figured with at the Last Acre—An Exciting Scene—Shoppers of All Sorts—A Long Procession of Happy Dancers.

A time-honored custom among the hands on a sugar plantation is the celebration of the day when the last stalk of cane is harvested. It is a day of great festivity. There are few planters who object to this festival, and there are not many who who are entirely in its observance. A number of one of these celebrations will be an almost faithful picture of all, for there is little variety about them.

It is a clear, sunny, winter day, and the hands are all dressed in their best. A long line of cane stalks lies on the ground, and the hands are all dressed in their best. A long line of cane stalks lies on the ground, and the hands are all dressed in their best.
