

The Mendicant.

THOS. E. FENN, Publisher.

Gray Georgia, Saturday, Nov. 3

Judge Thurman has given two thousand dollars to the Democratic campaign committee.

The topic of conversation is the election that comes off next week for President and Congressmen. Hurrah for Cleveland and James H. Blount.

Sarah Bernhardt has got a new pet. It is a large green lizard which crawls about her neck and shoulders in a way to startle the beholder.

From the Sparks Pioneer.

Mr. George W. Flowers, living a short distance west of Sparks, is about sixty years of age. During his eventful life he has killed 1213 deer, fifty-two wild cats, and thirty-five muskrats to collect.

Rev. Mr. Harris, the blind man from Twiggs County, spent a few days this week in town. He lectured at the Methodist church last Sabbath morning and evening. In the afternoon he performed on the organ at the same church and the Third Baptist church united and a musical treat was afforded to all—Jasper County News.

A Massachusetts man who got a wife by advertising, has just about himself dead after only six months of married life. This incident ought not to lessen the advertising privilege of the newspapers. To do so might be to expect to do their subscribers counting for them, and when that duty is put upon them they are apt to make a mess of it.

A WHITE SQUIRREL.

Roadmaster, Brewer returned yesterday from a trip over the A. P. & L. bringing with him the skin of a new white squirrel, killed in Wilcox county five days ago. The little animal was perfectly white from tip to tip and was quite a curiosity to those who saw it. It was often heard of in the South and white rabbits, but never before of a white squirrel—American Republican.

Penitentiary guard E. Stanley Jones, through a Mason yesterday afternoon with four prisoners from Jones County, on his way to Columbus, Georgia, they will be put to work for the United States brick Co. Among them was Duncan Johnson, the fifteen-year-old boy who took the key of a drawer from the pockets of Mr. John Williams of Jones, and unlocking the drawer stole a bag containing $135 in gold. He owned up to the robbery and said he was induced to steal the money by Flora Dumas, the cook. He goes for four years—Macon Telegraph.

THE ACORN CURE.

For some time past Officer Lowenthal has been troubled with swollen sore feet. As everybody knows, he is a powerful, well-built man, and makes a splendid looking officer, but he has suffered agony with his feet. They grew to such a size that he could not walk, and thus impeded his locomotion. He was laid up for a few weeks unable to walk, and during that time he tried the various remedies people will propose, but received no benefit. Finally he managed to get out, and while his feet were swelling he was detailed to light duty as watchman at the city hall.

At last a countryman came along and seeing the officer's feet, which had long since gone beyond the size of Chicago girls, recommended that he should carry acorns in his pocket the swelling and soreness would vanish. The officer was finally induced to try it.

Saturday night he was an angel. His feet were all right. He found an acorn from the country, he jumped up and cracked his heels together, twice before morning dawn.

He says the acorns did the work. The makers cure must now take a back seat.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mrs. E. C. HARRIS, Local Editor.

It is rumored that the C. & M. R. has been sold to the Richmond Terminal Co.

Mrs. C. P. Wilson, of Jones county, is visiting Mrs. George Webb near Monticello.

The annual session of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, for the 8th State Georgia, was held in Macon this week.

There is said to be a store house, at 108, Decatur street, Atlanta, Ga., built entirely of paper. It was constructed by a Frenchman, who is agent for the material. The roofing, weatherboarding, and flooring are all made of thick, compressed paper boards.

Hon. J. H. Blount and Col. D. R. Smith addressed the citizens of Monticello and Jasper County last Monday on the important issues of the day—tariff, etc. These eloquent gentlemen proved conclusively that the present tariff system was a gross injustice and under its management the poor people were growing still poorer.—Jasper County News.

One of the great evils of Jasper county was found in a bale of cotton sent to Macon recently. It was striped gray, but was of no use. It will never wash again at the smokehouse door for the juicy moccas. It was so pressed by the fellow block in the old county screw that its fine fibres were all gone. It had been dead too long for salvage. Poor kitty! It will never grow its back or swell its tail at the old house dog again.—Macon News.

SALE OF CATTLE AND SHEEP.

I will sell at the Court house door in Clinton, Jones county, between the usual hours of Sheriff's sales, Thirty two (32) head of fine South-down sheep, and Forty head (40) of high grade Jersey cattle including cows with calves, yearlings and a fine bull. Sale to take place on the 1st Tuesday in November next. Nov. 1st 1888. Editor Extra.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Mr. S. L. Chiles spent Monday at Wayside.

Col. J. C. Barron has returned from Atlanta.

Roses and chrysanthemums and other fall bloomers are beautiful this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Phillips spent last Sunday at the pleasant home of Mr. J. R. Chiles.

Mrs. A. L. Barron is again at home after a pleasant visit to her parent at Whitesburg.

The Misses Bechard of Laurens, S. C. are visiting the family of Mr. R. F. Butler in Jones County.—Tel. graph.

What lovely days Sunday, Monday and Tuesday were! The atmosphere imparted brightness and invigoration.

Mrs. Samuel Chiles, accompanied by her younger children, Annie Druce and Louise, went to Macon Monday to visit her sister Mrs. F. S. Johnson.

Mr. J. R. Chiles will have on exhibition at the Fair next week a very fine pair of south down sheep, no doubt the best, by far, in Jones County.

The latest fad with Clintonites is that of going to Macon by private conveyance. Both ladies and gentlemen are adopting that reliable mode now.

There are several very fine turnip patches in Clinton. A sensible housewife said to us a day or two since: "An old saw is 'fine turnip means meat is scarce.'"

Mr. Jas. A. Morgan who smiles over the yard stick at D. D. Holsenbeck's tiny little store at Grays went to Hillsboro last Sunday and returned in time to attend Sabbath School in Clinton.

Hunters complain of scarcity of partridges, and also that the birds, when found, are small and not well grown. Probably as the rank grass and weeds die down, more of them may be "flushed."

We place several new exchanges on our list this week, among them the "Rockdale Banner" published at Conyers, Editor J. R. Maddox at the helm. The Weekly press of Georgia is the best in the United States.

Miss Lois Johnson is visiting Miss Lizzie Robertson of High Shoals and will be from home several weeks. Miss Robertson and Miss Johnson were friends at Lucy Cobb last year and their reunion no doubt will be very pleasant.

Mr. E. M. Laidrum, of Emory College, spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Clinton, the guest of Mr. F. M. Stewart. Mr. L. made himself agreeably popular during his stay in the old red town, and finds a cordial welcome when ever he returns.

Mr. H. S. Greaves, we are glad to state, is much better and able to be out again. He was quite on his feet last week, during the bad spell of weather. Mr. Miss Sue Ross is also much improved from the severe attack of sickness from which she suffered Court week.

Go to the Fair next week everybody and carry all the family. There will be much to instruct and interest you. Time and money will be safely invested. Brush up your old clothes (if not able to buy new) and go and see what the grand old state of Georgia is doing.

Warehousemen of Macon are congratulating themselves upon the farmer's prompt payment of their papers while professional men at home complain of no collections. However it is thought that the farmer understands what he is about and finds it to his interest to pay his bills first. Short crops are enough to discourage and cause the wrinkles to gather on his brow.

At the Macon Fair last week Dr. Frank Donham exhibited 14 medicinal herbs, named and specified. W. L. Coleman had two hams weighing 40 and 41 lbs. apiece. W. T. Conn of Milledgeville had a handsome display of fancy candy which he offered for finest lard up under 12 cents.

Mrs. W. J. Northern had fine chickens and turkeys. The Fair was a success though rains out the gate receipts off considerably.

Has the prettiest young Georgia made up her mind to "that contest" next week? Want we be independent of the Telegraph begins his special at Gray? And it will be long.

Married at residence of Oliver H. Morton, on the evening of Oct. 21st, his daughter Miss Sarah R. Morton to Mr. Sidney J. Bryant of Putnam county by Rev. Wm. C. Felix. We extend congratulations.

T. H. Morris has sold the "Tel. graph" (Milledgeville) to Editor Vangie and it has re-assumed its old name "The Chronicle." The Ledger lived and breathed but a few short months but we thought it bright and spicy and regret its demise.

Reports are credited that the C. & M. R. R. has been sold to the great "Terminal" who recently made the grand scoop, buying the old reliable Central. We await further developments however before giving our readers particulars.

Prettier, bright weather we are having.

Remember that next Tuesday is election day.

FOR SALE—Georgia Rated Seed Rye. Coleman, Ray & Co., Macon, Ga.

Of course everybody, their uncles, aunts, and consins are going to the Fair next week.

The Delaware county farmer who recently advertised for a wife has already received over 100 letters from women of various ages, who are willing to marry him. The advertiser is said to be 60 years old and very well to do.

There are more ways to get work out of a young man than paying or scolding him. This fact has been demonstrated in the case of a young man living near here. When he happens to see his adored one Sunday for the next six days there is but one trouble with him and that is to keep him from over-working himself. Such is the effect of love!—Ex.
