CLINTON LOCALS.

Miss Maggie Belle Chiles is attending school in Macon.

Col. R. V. Barndeman attended Wilkinson Court this week.

Mr. Ab L. Barron spent last Friday and Saturday in the Central City.

Mrs. John Slocumb visited her sister Mrs. Ida Bradley Monday and Tuesday.

F. Holmes Johnson left Monday to attend the School of Technology in Atlanta.

Judge and Mrs. Johnson went down to Macon, by private conveyance on Tuesday.

Rev. W. C. Felts and family passed through Clinton Saturday to visit relatives in the country.

We call attention to the advertisement of Adm'r Sae on 22d, of perishable property etc., of the late James G. Barnes in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Johnson of Macon and two little girls Louie and Maie spent the night with Judge J. last week.

Mrs. Chas. T. Griswold has moved from James Station to Macon, where she goes to school her boys.
Pepton has entered Mercer University.

We have had two light frosts in Clinton. Reports from Jacksonville are better. Fewer cases and deaths each day weather there cool, clear and fall like.

Popular Jas. W. Turk known to and liked by every body in old Jones, has been visiting friends in the County last week and spent Thursday night in Clinton.

Contractors L. A. James and A. F.
James have finished grading the Southern and Florida R. R. to Val dosta and finished moving teams, carts, hands and mules last Saturday to their homes in Jones County.

A "small dance" at the old Brick house in Clinton Friday night.
From the country were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley, Misses Mittie Lee and Mattie Mulkin from Frank's, and the Mosses Bragg of Pine Ridge.

Court week is drawing near, and we want every subscriber, who has enjoyed the weekly visits of our good H. E. L. (and who has not lost his pocket and hand the same to our Mr. Penn who will receive it with a sneak and "thank"!

Our friend B. B. Finney who is connected with the R. R. service in Louisiana, made a flying visit to his Mother Thursday 27th.

Ordering to quarantine orders his train has been stopped but on Friday he received a telegram informing him that they had resumed and he left immediately for New Orleans.

Mrs. Robt. F. Reynolds and children with her Mother Mrs. F. S.
Johnson have returned to Clinton.
Mr. Reynolds, who is still in New Orleans deems it not prudent for them to return until a "big treat".

Although there is no yellow fever in N. O. he thinks "discretion the better part of valor".

The State Fair will be held.
The citizens committee and the Agriculture Society met at the Hotel Laniar Monday, November 1st is the day the great State fair will open and will continue for one week.

The communication from Frank's was received too late for last week's edition. Weinstert part of it this week earning that which was "old news". We are always glad to have letters from the different sections of the county, for we want all the good news of the day and times.

There seems to be a demon abroad in Louisiana—a kin to the one who several months committed just such murders in Louisiana. There have been in the last week, three women, (of low character true) murdered, and horribly mutilated in the streets of London and no doubt to the perpetrator. Large rewards have been offered by the Lord, Mayor and others.
