A TRIP TO JASPER AND JONES

It was with great pleasure I boarded the last train at Hillboro, Aug. 20th, about 3 p.m. (rather an unpleasant hour) for a short visit to see relatives and friends and recreate a little. After an early, good breakfast at the "National", in Macon, we boarded the 7 a. m. train, on the C. & M. for Hillsboro, a distance of about thirty two miles.
On the train I saw Dr. Battle, of Macon University, and Bros. Emmerson and Grady on their way to the Central Association, near Mon-tice, that tarried out to be the place of another one of Jasper county's awful tragedies. This affair did not help much, for good, but already had record for crime and bloodshed. This was my first trip on this road, I found the agents and conductors very pleasant and courteous, and ready to do what they could for the comfort of travelers. The road is in fine condition, and they go with a vim. Almost before I was comfortably seated they cried out, "Roberts!" and in a few minutes Morton, and soon Gray, then Bradleys, etc., until, in a little over an hour, they hollowed out Hillsboro. What great changes have occurred in only a few years.
I was frequently reminded of the fact, in noting the changes, that "The World do move". Hillsboro has improved very much, and now new residences have gone up, and the place has the quite a business air. (I don't mean they put airs, I found my kinsman, Silas M. very busy, as usual. He has been an important factor in helping to improve his town. He now has quite a family and he and his good wife are as clever as ever. Bro. Throver was in the midst of a protracted meeting, and I had the pleasure of meeting, at their neat, new church, several of the brethren. Of course I went to see my old friend Charley Ridley. I was glad to find he and Bro. Mc and others "steadfast in the faith." With as good a wife as Charley has and as good music as she and her sister can make he is not apt to backslide. I was glad to hear that the school at Hillsboro was first class. Wednesday night I spent with aunt Saluda, now Mrs.
John Bradley, Sr. She seems to be comfortable and happy with her new old man. Thursday, I spent a pleasant day with Mr. Mullikin and family. "Maek," as they call him, is a solid man, and by his industry and good management he is coming to the front. At the home of Mr. M. I met Mr. Barnes (aunt Susan) who had just gotten back from a three months visit to her daughters Smith, Edmondson and Burdett. I also met my bachelor Uncle Bert, who was just - years old that day, Aug. 23rd. As he is still single I want say. Thursday night I spent in Clinton with my old friend, Judge Rose. I need not say I enjoyed my visit here - this is understood. Most of Friday was spent at and near Grays, visiting relatives and friends. Here I met my old friend and companion of other days, B. H. Bonner. Henry seems not to have gone back any religiously. We went, in company, to see Cousin Mary Jones who had been sick some time. On my way home this thought came to me: "Is the Church keeping pace with, and developing as rapidly as the matterial interests of the country? I know she has been a mighty power, a strong, aggressive force in the world, but is she fulfilling her grand mission? Has she not lost much of her old time power?"

Dem. Ex. Com.

Mrs. Mary Jones continues in very bad health.

Mr. W. D. Winters spent last Sunday at home.

Mr. Ed. Coleman, of Haddock, was in town Tuesday.

We are having some very pleasant weather this week.

Mr. Tom Bragg, Jr., of Gordon, has been quite sick at his fathers home a few miles from Gray.

We are glad to learn that Miss Belle Stewart is well pleased with her school she has at Mt. Vernon, Ga.

Owing to the "run off" on the C. & M. has, Tuesday, the trains were irregular for a few days but are running on schedule track now.

The young people had quite a nice time at Mr. Dick Wats, near Franks, last Tuesday evening, dancing being the principal enjoyment of the occasion.

Mr. D. D. Holsenbeck is now freight and ticket agent at Gray.
Mr. Winters the former agent having moved to Macon to engage in business.

The many friends of Miss Maude Hardeman in our town regretted very much to see her leave on Thursday, the 6th inst. She has gone to Lucy Cobb Institute to school.

OUR THIRD YEAR.

We are just entering upon our third business year in Macon. We look with pride upon the past and with pleasure to the future. The first year our efforts were kindly received by the trading public and our volume of business for the second year more than doubled the first. The outlook for business during this our third year is more flattering than either of the previous years, and we come before you this season more fully prepared and better equipped to supply your wants than ever before. We have made large contracts with the best clothing manufacturers in the country and have had made to our order many special designs and novelties in clothing that will not be shown you elsewhere. We have ransacked the Eastern markets and have had imported many desirable things in Gents Furnishings and we come before you this season with the most comprehensive stock of everything worn by men and boys, ever shown in the City of Macon. We have the right things at the right prices and we cordially invite every one to inspect it before buying.

Very truly,
EADS, NEEL & CO.

CLINTON LOCALS.

Wasn't Sunday a melancholic one?

Mrs. R. Hutchings and son Richard, of Macon, are visiting her brother, Mr. H. S. Greaves.

A "Musical" at Judge Johnson's last Friday evening called out pretty girls, gallant beans, and sweet sounds.

The vociferous songs of the dusky jail-birds are not by any means melodious or cheering. What their lack of music is made up by volume, it seems.

A pleasant Sociable was indulged in Monday evening at the hospitable home of Dr. Geo. Parsley. Mr.
Frank Stewart had as an able assistant as host, the fascinating Mr.
Jim Stewart of Macon.

Mrs. Robt. Reynolds and Mrs.
F. S. Johnson, of New Orleans, who have been with relatives in town for some time, returned to Macon Friday, where they will remain several weeks, before starting for the Crescent City.

On last Thursday at 4 o'clock p. m. in the presence of a few invited guests, Mrs. Ida Ingram was united in marriage to Mr. T. C.
Bradley, Rev. Wm. Felts officiating.
Mrs. Ingram has been for a year or more one of the belles of the village and many friends join the HEAD-LIGHT in extending congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs.
Tom Bradley.

The Primitive Baptist As-ociation held at Pine Ridge began last Friday. Extensive preparation had been made by the neighborhood and membership and expectations of an enormous crowd. Especially had Messrs. Melvin and Wm. H. Morton, Thomas Bragg, Goldard, etc., prepared to entertain many friends, but Friday dawned gloomy and cloudy, rain set in and of course prevented an attendance. On Saturday quite a number were on the grounds, the day was pleasant but everything damp, but what a day was Sunday! Pour, pour, blow, blow, rain, rain, No Association for that day. All compelled to stay at home, but reckon they could eat and enjoy the nice things prepared on Saturday for the "Association!" Next time may the Gods be more kind, the Sun more generous.

Our type made it out rather badly in our last issue for our advertiser, Mr. John Bradley. Trust he thought no harm of us for leaving out the important R. We are in one of the months of it's now, when the fates are kind and allow us to include in oyster shrimp and crab eating. But this is "an aside" and has no connection with the worthy Mr. Bradley, of Bradley's, who is one of the business men of our county and who loves his people, loves his stock, and "they say" loves pretty girls—or a pretty girl!

Some worthy young lassie is "losing deal" we opine, or the worthy Mr.
B. would not be "going against" that scriptural injunction: "It is not good for man to be alone." While Mr. B. loses no opportunity to show a kind act or winning smile for the "fair," he pays close attention to his numerous duties as B. R. agent, merchant, wood-contractor, etc. He has up to the 8th of September furnished to the C. & M. R. R. 500 more cords of wood than any other man and has now ready for Mr. Bazemore's inspection and order 250 cords of the best wood.

Complaint of damage to cotton crops by recent severe rain is heard on every hand.

Judge Thurman has recovered from his recent attack and is on the "war path."

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, au-graph she has an interesting letter—copied from the Portland Argus.

Poor Jacksonville is having a gloomy time. Up to Sept. 9th the number of cases have been 604, deaths 73. Dr. Baldwin and Williams, both eminent physicians have died from it while discharging their duty. The "Red Cross Nurses" are kept busy.

The President's letter of acceptance has been issued. In it he fearlessly and fully discusses the important events of this political epoch. The following items are dwelt upon: Federal Taxation, Incidental Taxation, Burden of the Government, How the we-g-earner suffers, The remedy must be the care, Protection for Labor, Trusts and Combinations, Revenue reform, The Republican position, The needs of the poor, Actual relief wanted, etc. He closes thus: "With a firm faith in the intelligence and patriotism of our countrymen, and relying upon the conviction that misrepresentation will not influence them, that prejudice will not close their understanding and that menace will not intimidate them, let us urge them to inaugurate a righteous reform, etc."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I am through taking stock and finding my business this year far exceeds any previous year in amount of sales as well as profits, and as I am now getting ready for my extensive trip North, where I will visit all the leading factories from whom I make all purchases direct. Buying from first hands and saving jobbers profits enables me to sell a Better Class of Goods for Less Money than any other house in the city. To do this, you will know it takes Hard Cash.

For Hard Cash will Tell the Tale.

In view of these facts, and from the fact that a generous public has heretofore very liberally patronized me, I have concluded to show my appreciation by offering them for the next thirty days Goods at a discount of 25 to 35 per cent, less than New York cost.
During this my clearing out sale, I offer an additional inducement that will give gratis to each purchaser of $5 worth of Dry Goods purchased One Good Calico Dress, and to each purchaser of $5 worth of Clothing a fine pair of Suspenders, and for $10 worth of Clothing one of the finest Monarch Shirts, the best shirt in the world.

At Ph. M. Berg's, 414 Mulberry Street, Near Fair Store.

I am agent for manufacturers making Men, Boys, Ladies, Misses and Children's STEAM HATS of which I keep a full line on hand and offer now at half price.
