

the death rate from
per cent at Kenne-
e per cent of those are kept alive by the cent never arrive,"
we can get there in
this percentage down,
equipment and train-

stances have some
t. A scoop-stretcher is aption which can pick a suspected back injuing him. The frame
p and bottom, metal eneath the body, then astened.

splint is a plastic bag ver the injured arm or
l. It is possible to X-gh this type of splint, of the patient during

cher can carry more
. A tiny portable incuables. Special canvas to a "surgi-lift" at move a patient yet keep
the same time.
stant cold pack" could
the "morning after"
e squeeze a vial of a powdery mass into
r injured eyes, bruises ls.

al. He was retired in 1953.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Milam Conner Amorous; two daughters, Mrs. Don Lodin of Santa Anna, Calif., and Miss Lisa Amorous of Albuquerque, N.M.; two sons, William W.
Amorous Jr. of Hemet, Calif.; Martin Amorous of Las Vegas, N.M.; two sisters, Mrs.
Robert L. Baker of Marietta and Mrs. Isabel Palmer of Charlottesville, Va.; six grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Webb

Mrs. Martha (Shorty) H.
Webb, 72, of 324 Atwood Drive NW in Marietta died Sunday and funeral services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Marietta.

The Rev. Earl Stallings and the Rev. George F. Brown will officiate and burial will be in Kennesaw Memorial Park Cemetery. Members of K.B. Sunday School class will serve as pallbearers and honorary escorts and should meet at the church at 1:45 p.m.

Adams Infant

Blake Vinson Adams, six week-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
William H. (Bill) Adams of 180 Brookwood Drive, Mable-ton died Saturday afternoon in the University Hospital in Birmingham, Ala. after open heart surgery.

Graveside services were scheduled for 11 a.m. Monday in the Westview Cemetery in Atlanta. The Rev. Davis York was to officiate.

The Adams infant was patient at Eggleston Children's Hospital in Atlanta before being transferred to Birmingham last Tuesday.

Survivors other than parents include one brother, Stephen Adams of Mableton; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory F. Stamey of Clarksville; paternal grandfather, Arnold V. Adams of Mableton; paternal great grandmother, Mrs. Hubert Adams of Robertstown; aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Gene Davis Funeral Home in Mableton is in charge of arrangements.

THURSDAY JUNE 17

Marietta Kiwanis, 12:30 p.m., YWCA.

Marietta Hospital Authority, 7 p.m., Kennestone Hospial.

DEATHS-FUNERALS

Smith Infant

Graveside services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Smith Jr. of 1658 Scott Drive in Marietta who died Saturday were held Sunday in the Riverview Memorial Park. The Rev. J.T. McHan officiated.

Castellaw Funeral Home in Smyrna was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Taft

Mrs. Rhoda Taft, 77, of Galveston, Texas, who is the mother of Charles Taft of Smyrna and was the founder of the Taft Convalescent Home in Galveston in 1946 died Tuesday.

Graveside services were Sunday in Dallas.

Mrs. Taft lived in Galveston since 1938. She was a nurse and the convalescent home she founded is now one of the largest in the Galveston area. She sold the home 10 years ago to her son and retired.

Survivors other than Charles Taft of Smyrna include four daughters and two other sons, all of Texas.

Col. Amorous

Mrs. Webb was a native of Columbus, Miss. where she lived most of her early life. She had lived in Marietta since 1939 and was a member of the First Baptist Church, K.B. Sunday School class, Philathea Sunday School class, Holly Garden Club and the D.A.R.

Survivors include her widower, Allan B. Webb Sr., two daughters, Miss Letha Webb of Marietta and Mrs. J.D. Walton Jr. of Atlanta; son, Allan (Mike) B. Webb Jr. of Marietta; two sisters, Mrs. A. McInnis and Mrs. E.T. Henry of Rosedale, Miss.; eight grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Mayes Ward Funeral Home in Marietta is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Stamper

Mrs. Martha Ann Jordan Stamper, 91, of 1623 Moore Ave., Marietta died Sunday in Kennestone Hospital.

Funeral services will be 3 p.m. Tuesday in the chapel of Dobbins Funeral Home. The Rev. James Williams, the Rev. Hubert Jordan and the Rev. A.E. Westbrook will officiate and burial will be in Mountain View Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Stamper was born and

FOCAL

SAVE ON
NO-IRON

Our Reg. 2.5

1

Men's short-sleeved Regular or long
plaids, solids. S-