

OBITUARY.

DIED, on the 17th inst. in the 16th year of his age, MASTER AUSTIN O. VINCENT, only son of Mr. Allen Vincent, of this vicinity. All the tender cares of a father were blended in the one object; and all the duties of a parent were performed in rearing the youth to be a useful member of society, and he promised fair to be all his fond parents wished: with a disposition that gained him friends wherever he had acquaintances, was united a talent and a desire to acquire literary information, which is seldom found in that age. But the spoiler came, and all the fond anticipations of parental affection were disappointed—in the short space of 24 hours he was translated from health to a never ending eternity. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away—blessed be the name of the Lord."

COMMUNICATED.

DIED—at his residence on the 21st inst. in the 34th year of his age, Joseph Marshall, jun. esq.—He had presided in the magistracy of his county a number of years, to the satisfaction of his constituents, & left in it an honorable and dignified example of virtuous disinterestedness. All the duties of Father, Husband and Master, he performed consistent with the true systems of Morality and Religion—and in the dispensations of Providence during his severe illness, not a sigh of discontent passed his lips—the same calm firmness that characterised his previous life bore him out—and in the entire confidence of his Redeemer, he bid adieu to these terrestrial scenes without a pang.

DIED, on the morning of the 25th inst. (at the house of Col. Z. Williams in Columbia county) after an illness of eleven days, in the seventh year of his age, Master Lucius Hill, only son of the late Mr. John Hill, formerly merchant of Augusta, leaving an affectionate mother, a little sister, and numerous relations, to lament the loss of a fine promising child.

—Yesterday morning, Mr. Charles Downie, for a number of years a respectable inhabitant of this city.
